

DECISIVE TURN IS EXPECTED FROM BATTLE IN GALICIA

AUSTRIAN ADVANCE
CONTINUES
UNBROKEN

Vienna, May 6. (Via London).—The victorious Austrian advance continues on the entire West Galician front, according to an official announcement made by the war office today. Russian prisoners to the number of 50,000 have been taken.

Vienna, May 6. (Via London May 6).—A battle of the most desperate character continued all night long and throughout today, without a break, on the west Galician front.

The Austro-German armies continued to gain ground on the southern section of the battle front, capturing position after position from the Russians.

The fighting is taking place in the difficult country of mountain spurs and foothills of the northern Carpathians and the Teuton armies are gaining ground in spite of the stubborn resistance of the Russians. The Austro-German forces now are approaching the Wislola river.

Fate of Northern Lines
Rest on Present Battle

The city of Turnow, still in Russian hands although under Austro-German artillery fire. The fate of Turnow and that of the Russian line northward to the Vistula river depends on the struggle now waging for possession of Walsztyn which towers to the south of Turnow.

The Russians have fortified this mountain until it has become a veritable Gibraltar, but the Archdukes men are attacking it with desperate valor and they are being well served by their artillery. This struggle may go down in history with that for Putiloff hill, to the south of Mukden, in the Russo-Japanese war.

Allied Teutons Owe Success To Artillery.

The success of the Austro-Germans under the circumstances has been due largely to their artillery. All the dispatches from the fighting zone concur in describing the crushing effect of the allied artillery which is claimed to be greatly superior to that of the Russians.

Frank. Personal notes to the governor were attached to many of the circulars by Cornell alumni who knew Frank, who is a graduate of Cornell, in his student days.

LONDON ADMITS GERMAN SUCCESS IN COUNTER ATTACKS

JAPANESE CLAMOR FOR WAR AGAINST CHINA;
ULTIMATUM DELIVERED

Tokio, May 6.—Official announcement was made here this afternoon that Japan had sent an ultimatum to China.

Tokio, Thursday, April 22.—(Mail to Shanghai, May 6).—The world wide publication of the list of demands presented to China by Japan shortly after the defeat of the German garrison at Kiao Chow and which still are being negotiated between the two governments, coupled with the reports of growing opposition to them in England and the attitude on this whole subject of the United States has greatly embarrassed the Japanese government, from which the people expect much.

Three More Trawlers
Added To Zone Toll

London, May 6.—The steamer Cathay, from Copenhagen for Chinese ports, was either mined or torpedoed last night in the North Sea. She went down in twenty minutes. Her passengers and the members of her crew totalling forty-three persons, took to the small boats and all were landed safely at Ramsgate today.

London, May 6.—The trawler Strutton, of Grimsby, was sunk in the North Sea yesterday by the gun fire of a German submarine. The crew was taken on board the submarine and later ordered to embark in a small boat which had been taken from the Strutton. They landed at Hartlepool today.

London, May 6.—The schooner Earl of Latham was sunk by a German submarine off Kinsale, on the Irish coast. The crew was permitted to take to the small boats and was rescued by a trawler.

MRS. CARMAN'S MAID TESTIFIES SHE WAS OFFERED $300 TO CHANGE STORY

Minneapolis, N. Y., May 6.—Celie Coleman, the negro maid, who is the chief witness for the state in the trial of Mrs. Florence Conklin Carman, charged with the murder of Louise Bailey, caused a sensation on redirect examination today by testifying that a negro detective named Geo. Hicks had endeavored to induce her to change her story of the murder and told that if she would do so Mrs. Carman would pay her $300.

"Hicks came to Charleston, S. C., where I am spending the winter," said the witness and told me Mrs. Carman would give me $300 if I would change my story."

Mrs. Carman's attorney objected to the admission of the testimony but was overruled upon his admission that Hicks was connected with the defense.

Mrs. Carman evidenced considerable agitation during her former maid's testimony.

George Toomer, Celie's cousin, and a man named Flood, were present when Hicks made the alleged offer, the witness further testified.

Toomer, who was the last witness before recess, corroborated that portion of the maid's testimony in which she said she had told him a few nights after the shooting what Mrs. Carman had said to her on the night of the shooting and the morning afterwards.

Toomer has written down the story she related as it was told. The memorandum was produced.

HAVE CONFIDENCE THAT REALIGNMENT WILL AID

London, May 6.—The operations in the Dardanelles are being pressed forward under highly satisfactory conditions, Premier Asquith told the house of commons this afternoon in the course of a statement upon the contemplated naval and land attacks on the Gallipoli Peninsula.

London, May 6.—For the first time since the British forced the Germans from Hill No. 60, near Ypres, the soldiers of Emperor William have been partly successful in their counter-attacks, and no advice to the contrary having been received, it is assumed that the Germans are still holding today the positions they obtained on the hill by the use of asphyxiating gases.

In the meanwhile the German line to the east of Ypres is within three miles of the town. The British press does not seek to deny or minimize the persistency of this German offensive, but there is no disposition to lament the drawing in of the British front to the eastward and to the north.

N. Y. CHILD MURDERER
PLANS ANOTHER CRIME

New York, May 6.—The letter writing murderer who killed five-year-old Eleanor Cohn and four-year-old Charlie Murray, has written the Murray boy's mother, telling her that he will commit another murder when the present excitement over her child's death subsides.

The letter was received today at the time the little victim's body was about to be buried. Mrs. Murray read one paragraph and collapsed. The missive was taken to the police headquarters to be examined for finger prints. The murder of the little boy, who was killed by knife wounds in his abdomen the night of May 3, was preceded by a similar threat contained in a letter addressed to Mrs. Cohn, the mother of the little girl who was killed March 29. Both children, the police believe, were killed by the same person.

GALLAGHER BILL FAILS TO BRING ABOUT PEACE

Columbus, May 6.—Rumors that the governor might veto the Gallagher bill, amending the Green run-of-mine law, which the house finally passed after a spirited contest yesterday afternoon, were not substantiated today.

It was admitted that the governor had not been pleased with the consideration of the Gallagher bill pending the peace negotiations between coal miners and operators in Cleveland regarding the Eastern Ohio strike, but it was said that the executive would not press his opposition further.

Organized miners were talking today of bringing a referendum to submit the bill to the people next fall.

A switch of most of the members of Hamilton county delegation in the house was the thing that put the Gallagher bill through.

Miners' officials say that peace, if it comes, as a result of the passing of the Gallagher bill, will be only temporary. They believe that with the Gallagher bill on the statute books the operators will decline to renew the run-of-mine plan in a contract after April 1, 1916 and that another strike will come that will be more serious and long drawn out than the present thirteen months' tie-up has been.

COUNTY UNIT LICENSE
SYSTEM TENTATIVELY
AGREED TO BY WILLIS

Columbus, May 6.—Caucus of Republican senators and representatives over the subject of an administration liquor license decentralizing bill appeared as a possibility today following continued conferences in the executive office in an attempt to reach an agreement on the McDermott bill, which is expected to come to a vote in the senate tomorrow.

Governor Willis conferred again today with Peter W. Durr, Hamilton county leader, William Copper Proctor, Cincinnati, and Wayne B. Wheeler, superintendent of the Ohio Anti-Saloon League. Tentatively, he agreed to abandon the district unit system and to make counties the licensing unit, it was said. To determine the ultimate attitude of the house, leaders of which had told the governor they would not consent to county units, the joint caucus was proposed.

In return for the administration's giving up the district unit principle, liberal interests are to consent to a strong state law enforcement provision, according to the tentative agreement, on which the factions tried to get together today. Administration leaders admitted today that there is nothing definite on which to base a prediction that the bill will receive enough liberal Republican support tomorrow to insure its passage.

DAYTON HAS $50,000 FIRE
Dayton, May 6.—Fire of unknown origin early today partially destroyed the plant of the Knutz Johnson Landry Co. The loss is estimated at $50,000.

THREE ARE KILLED IN OKLAHOMA TORNADO

Ardmore, Okla., May 6.—Three persons were injured and much property damage done here today by a heavy wind storm. It was reported that Wilson, Kila, near here, was hit by a storm which blew down forty buildings, but that no one was seriously injured there. Winds of almost tornado proportions were reported over a wide section of Southern Oklahoma.

LICENSE FEE TOO HIGH;
JITNEYS OPERATE AGAIN

Ashtabula, May 6.—A test suit brought under the ordinance recently enacted by the city council here to regulate jitney buses resulted in defeat for the city by Acting Police Judge Ullman holding the measure unconstitutional because the license fee of $100 provided by it was prohibitive.

It. B. Pierce, the motor bus operator, arrested for operating without a license, was set free and jitneys which ceased operations when the ordinance was passed because of its stringent provisions, immediately began operations again.

House Passes Full
Crew Passenger Bill

Columbus, May 5.—All passenger trains are to carry a full crew of one engineer, one fireman, two brakemen and a baggage master, according to the bill of Representative Graham which the house passed today.

The Danford bill, permitting teachers without normal school training to teach for one year after passing examinations, was passed.

Republicans combined against the Chapman bill, drawn by State Auditor Donahay, to require the approval of the auditor's department for the adoption of any system of book keeping by any state department. In retaliation Democrats helped a few Republicans to kill the Knox bill, providing that any man can escape jury service by becoming a "contributing member" of the National guard, paying $5 a year.

London, May 6.—Great Britain has requested the government of Egypt to prohibit the export of cotton oil to all ports other than French, Russian, Spanish and Portuguese.

BERLIN IS OPTIMISTIC
SUCCESSSES

Berlin, May 6.—(Via London).—The military developments of the last week have had a visible effect on popular feeling in Berlin, which is decidedly more optimistic. Operations in the Russian province of Courland, on the Baltic; in Galicia and in Belgium indicate that the German forces are taking the offensive on a large scale and that greater events are to be expected.

It is understood in well informed quarters that the German troops in Courland are now nearing the port of Libau which probably will be attacked by land and sea. Field Marshal Von Hindenburg himself is in command there. His design appears to be to take Libau and probably Riga, as well, and use the ports as bases for harassing Russian communications with Petrograd.

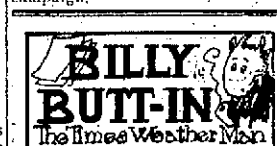

Russians Reinforce
Their Northern Lines

The Russians already have sent from Kovno reinforcements for resisting these operations, the results of which must soon be apparent. The Russians also are attempting to resist the Austro-German eastward movement in Galicia and have brought up reinforcements from the Carpathians for that purpose. Information received here, however, indicates that the Russians are being swept along before the Teutonic Allies or else captured, as were the previous defenders of the Russian positions.

Galicia May Bring
Decisive Turn In East

Further developments in Galicia are awaited here with breathless interest and it is believed the events on the front may give a decisive turn to the entire eastern campaign. The view held here is that the whole Russian position in the Carpathians has now become precarious.

It is understood that strong pressure on the retreating Russians has been brought to bear by the forces of General Van Mackensen and Field Marshal Baron Von Hoetsendorf, which are arriving from the west. It is therefore expected that the operations in Galicia now developing may prove to be the most important of any thus far in the Eastern campaign.

ITALY CONTINUES HER MILITARY ACTIVITIES

On the Italian frontier, Wednesday, May 5.—(Via Paris, May 5).—At the same time that the negotiation between Italy and Austria are being continued, Italy's military preparations are being completed with as much energy as though the country expected to participate in war tomorrow.

All the carabinieri and customs guards, who in Italy are attached to the army, have been called to the colors, and all military leaves of absence have been suppressed.

The frontier of Italy on the Austrian side has been strongly fortified. All the passes are protected with entrenchments and wire entanglements. Concrete has been used in a number of places in the erection of barricades for the protection of the soldiers.

Special measures have been adopted for the defense of Venice and the art treasures in that city. The naval authorities are of the opinion that long range guns of large calibre are sufficient to prevent any hostile fleet from bombarding the city but attack from aeroplanes is feared. To afford protection against the onslaughts of aviators, anti-airship guns have been set up at several points around the city and it is believed they will suffice to protect Venice from assault from above.

In addition to the troops concentrated on the Austrian frontier another Italian army has been brought together in the vicinity of Brindisi on the Adriatic. This concentration is interpreted as a sign that Italy foresees the possibility of action in the near east.

Charge Lee Failed To Deliver Strike

Washington, May 6.—Charges that W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, promised the support of his organization to a strike of Pennsylvania railroad shopmen in 1904 and failed to deliver it, and counter charges that W. H. Price, organizer of the shopmen's strike, began his activities after the Pennsylvania had refused him a position as legislative agent, featured today's hearing before the Industrial Relations Commission.

Mr. Lee will have an opportunity to testify if he desires. General Manager Long made detailed statements of labor troubles on the road and J. B. Hunt explained the operation of the road's relief system. At the afternoon session the Pennsylvania state constabulary was discussed.

Argue Publishing Of County Dep't Reports

Columbus, May 5.—Whether county auditors shall publish a complete financial report of receipts and expenditures of all county departments annually in papers of opposite politics as provided in the Vollenweider bill, was argued before the house county affairs committee today. B. J. McKinney of Marietta, editor, representing the Associated Ohio Dailies, and Joseph Tracy, of the state bureau of accounting, appeared in behalf of the bill. They urged that it would give full publicity to county business and prevent improper financial transactions. Mayo Foster, of Cleveland, spoke against the bill, saying it would cost counties many thousands of dollars unnecessary expenditure yearly.

Another hearing was planned for tomorrow morning, to allow G. W. C. Perry, of Chillicothe, and J. R. Alexander, of Zanesville, newspaper publishers, to speak for the bill.

Syracuse, N. Y., May 6.—The case of the defense in Williams Barnes' suit for libel against Theodore Roosevelt is nearly completed, attorneys said today.

Some questions of Col. Roosevelt were asked by Mr. Bowers to establish basis for further evidence. The Colonel testified that he resided in the state and voted at the September, 1914, primaries and he named the candidates for the United States senatorial and gubernatorial nominations of the Republican and Democratic parties.

"Shall I name the candidates in the Progressive primaries?" "Oh yes, the Progressive party is still historical, at any rate," said Mr. Evans, and the court room smiled audibly. The Colonel was then excused.

peaches and cream complexion of Miss Gladys was revealed in the true light—something of the general color scheme of watery coffee. Well, if it did, Gladys wouldn't be riding in taxicabs any more, unless she was paying for them herself. Why, the poor girl would be as alone in the world as a theatrical photographer's country is not going to be deprived of its beauty aids, and nature, so far as these things go, will not be presented unadorned upon the stage.

When the war threatened a famine in the accessories necessary for facial art manufacturing perfumers of the country stepped to the rescue of the chorus girls. When they could not get a thing from the other side they found something better here to take its place and began to turn out better products than their erstwhile foreign competitors. Now when a girl goes forth to win her love for the boys, how there is no reason why there should not be a "Miss in America" label on her dazzling complexion and shimmering hair.

DECISION MADE IN CROWE CASE

Judge Beatty announced his decision Thursday afternoon in the matter of the exceptions filed to the inventory and appraisal of the estate of the late Frank Crowe.

The court held that one-half of the $1002 deposit in the First National bank of this city should be deducted from the inventory and placed to the credit of his brother, John Crowe, of near Lucasville. He also held that one-half of the $1105 in gold found in a trunk at the Crowe residence after the death of Frank Crowe should be added to the estate of Frank Crowe, instead of being credited to John Crowe.

In the opinion of the court, the two brothers conducted their business as a partnership affair.

All other exceptions of the widow of the late Frank Crowe were overruled by the court except that relating to the money on deposit in the bank.

The attorneys in the case, which has been pending for three weeks, were Almer, Miller and Seal for Frank Crowe, the administrator, Bannan and Bannan and Meyer for Mary Burns and Andrew Crowe, guardians of John Crowe, and A. T. Holcomb, and Horace L. Small for the widow and daughter of the late Frank Crowe.

Milk And How It Removes Wrinkles

The skin-nourishing and the beautifying results of milk suggest those of any substance known. This has been admitted since the early days when milk baths were common among the leisure classes. These days, of course, milk baths are out of the question, and for years chemists have been at work trying to discover some means of producing a nursing cream which would retain the original nature of milk, with all its marvelous beautifying powers. This has only recently been accomplished, in a simple way by using a half pint of fresh, unskimmed milk with two ounces of powdered bryol, which can be obtained at any drug store. Unless the bryol is used the results will not be obtained. The result is a nursing cream which has the most remarkable results in nourishing the skin and making all wrinkles rapidly disappear, besides giving an extraordinary softness, purity of color and smoothness to the skin. This is, without doubt, the greatest beauty discovery made for many decades.

THE HAND THAT SMITES.

Ever since the passenger fare on the railroads was reduced by the assembly from three to two cents per mile the carriers have been complaining of too heavy a cut, and, truth to tell, the years have been rather lean with them, though all is not attributable to the reduction in passenger earnings.

So much for an actual situation and now as to one predicament upon it. Last fall when our now good young governor was inaugurating over the state, he was promising much directly and a great deal more indirectly, that is as to the latter "he was leaving it to be understood." Being constitutional reactionaries the railroads were given to throwing a fit every time the name of that ogre of progressivism, the wicked Jim Cox was mentioned. When the complainant Francis Bartlett Willis appeared on the scene the magnates of great degree and most of those of no degree at all at once snuggled up to him, a savior and a deliverer. He gave them the glad hand and blithely they built expectations on his election, and far was it from him to discourage them. When he was inaugurated they appeared to reap the reward of the service they had rendered him. And right merrily ran the world away for the assembly seemed willing enough to oblige their friends the railroads and redeem any express or implied promise that was agreeable to the good young governor. Smoothly therefore ran the bill to elevate the mileage rate one-half cent. Suddenly, however, sand is found on the track and a little investigation finds the villain hiding in the executive chamber and it is none other than the good young governor himself. The drummers had begun setting up such a roar against the raise as only they can make and our good young governor, who never interferes with the legislature, until it becomes necessary to save his own bacon, just laid the word passed around that he did not approve of an increase in railroad fare and thereupon the accident happened. Thus too is another fine expectation that the legal shackles would be taken off of business rudely shattered.

A LOSS OF MILLIONS.

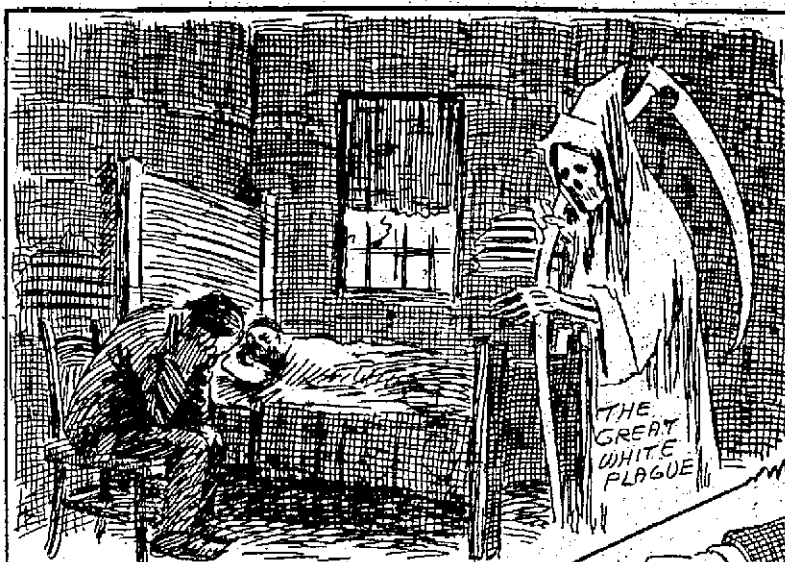

A subscriber asks the Huntington Advertiser to give the loss to the country in the consumption of chewing gum, but that way journal, having a due regard to the imminent achievement of its fair readers, forbears to make anything like a definite answer.

And well it may, as to cover all the phases of the cases requires not only tiresome delving into and marshalling of statistics, but deep scientific deductions and intricate mathematical calculations. It will not do at all to say the productive or retail value of the gum made and sold in these United States reaches this or that sum and that stands for a loss. The question of whether there is an actual loss, or one that is far more important is complex and altogether a matter of dispute.

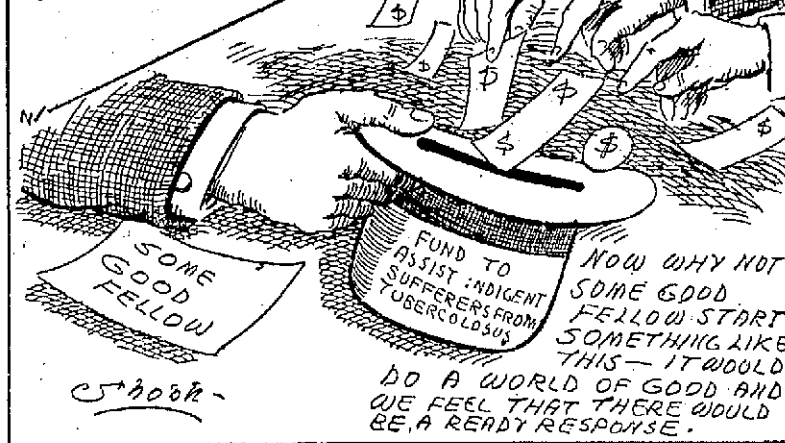

If we regard the chewing of gum as a vice in toto we might conclude every cent invested in the article is a loss, but we must remember that if millions are consumed in its purchase some millions enter into its production and tens of thousands find employment in the labor involved. Assuming, however, that the use of the masticant involves a total loss, the actual loss does not stop there. The far greater damage is to be found in the waste and dissipation of energy, power. Energy, power, is but so much momentum and so many speeds. Thus if we reckon that the Huntington belle, in the mastication of her gum consumes only eight hours a day, spreads her molar an inch apart each masticant, with a lifting force of eight ounces, and the velocity thereof is one hundred and twenty-three we can figure it out that in a day enough power is generated by the fair sex of the West Virginia metropolis to run an electric car down to Ashland and back, wash all the clothes in town every Monday, with enough surplus to keep the sewing machine busy sixteen hours a day. Now supposing we could take all the towns in the country, the villages, the hamlets and the open country and all the females in them that masticate gum and combine and harness the power they generate we would have a force greater than that of Niagara.

If all that is heard could only be believed the present Sultan of Turkey would be an easy winner as the greatest of all the mighty war lords that Islamism has produced.

A CHANCE TO DO GOOD.

THE REPORT OF THE CITY VISITING NURSE, MRS. ANSTEAD, CALLS ATTENTION TO NUMEROUS CASES OF THIS KIND AMONG THE DESTITUTE OF THE CITY.

Things go by contraries. There are one hundred and twenty-two billion rabbits in Australia and men go out in armies and slaughter them by the tens of thousands to keep themselves from being eaten out of land and home by "the varmints", while the government pays a bounty for their pelts. In America no one has ever counted 'em, but you have to pay if you are caught killing one "out of season."

"Sure," said the Man Who Always Stops on the Street, "I'm kickin' about them high water dresses and butter plate hats the women folks are wearin', just the same, I reckon, as old Adam complained about Eve's fig leaf costume bein' most all scollops."

John J. Ingalls, who was more of a cynic than a critic, said it was a mighty poor politician that wouldn't promise all his friends everything they asked him. That may have been so a good many years ago, but nowadays the politician has got to make good to win, or keep an winning.

Hundreds of women traveled from many distant climes to The Hague to hold a peace conference, and did nothing but wrangle and jaw with each other. Seemingly they are no more of a success at the business than men.

According to the Pittsburgh-Gazette we could all agree with Billy Sunday when he says it was the devil that invented the clock, if he will particularize and explain he has reference to the alarm variety.

The Bluefield Telegraph says no man can earn $25,000 a year. May be it is right, but there are men in this country being paid four times as much, and what is more other jobs at the same amount and better are busily looking for them.

The war would soon end if one side would quit of its own notion. Lacking that, it won't stop until some one gets a fearful drubbing, which just now doesn't seem to be anywhere in sight.

It was nice in us to mount our fire fighting apparatus for the rescue of Ironton, but it was nicer it was not actually needed.

It is a sorry figure our good young governor cuts, trying to do it and trying to make the people believe he isn't doing it.

Doc Koko's COLUMN

Jimmie's Beautiful Dream
When Jimmie's turn had come to bat
He heard a mighty shout;
The bases were all nicely filled
And not a man was out.

Jim gave the plate a sounding whack,
And caught the pitcher's eye;
The pitcher turned all sorts of shapes
Then let the spit-ball fly.

Jim swung the bat with giant force
And hit the ball just right,
You should have seen it split the air,
And disappear from sight.

Then Jimmie started for his run,
He flew just like a bird;
But when he tumbled out of bed,
He hadn't got to third.

CUPID INVADES RANKS OF SCHOOL TEACHERS

Dan Cupid is going to play havoc in the ranks of the school marmos of Portsmouth this summer, according to well defined rumors going the rounds of the teachers during the past week. Ten of them have confided to their close friends that they are to be married in June, and the knowing ones say that number does not represent one-half of the prospective brides between now and the first of next September. Superintendent Appel is expected to be called upon to fill at least two dozen vacancies in the teaching corps when he prepares the assignment of teachers next fall.

MAY DAY CEREMONIES AT WHEELERSBURG, O.

May Day will be fittingly observed by the Wheelersburg schools Friday all day. The teachers of the schools have been hard at work and have arranged a program that will take up the entire day.

Friday will be May Day and Patrons' Day in Wheelersburg school circles. The festival exercises are to be held on the school grounds. Every parent and all residents of the community are heartily invited to come early and spend the day.

The morning will be devoted to the parents and relatives, and friends visiting the rooms and examining the exhibits of manuscripts and construction work which have been neatly arranged to form a very attractive exhibit. The work on display will show each child's work in comparison with others of the same grade.

Promptly at one o'clock the May Festival will start. Parents who come for all day should bring their diners. The first thing in the May Day custom is to crown the May Queen who is to be Dorothy Peters, sophomore student of the high school. Marjorie Mueckoy, one of the attendants, will crown the Queen of May.

The crown she wears and the scepter she bears are both cunningly fashioned of the Spring's choicest blooms. Averil Hunsinger, Nell Griver and Effie Reif are the other attendants to the May Queen. In honor of the Queen of the day there will be a pageant consisting of 72 pupils from the different grades who will march about the grounds singing a song appropriate to May Day. They will pay homage to her by distributing flowers at her feet.

The pageant will represent six different periods of history as follows: Greek period, high school pupils; Roman period, seventh and eighth grade pupils; Elizabethan period, fifth and sixth grade pupils; Colonial period, third and fourth grade pupils; Revolution period, second grade pupils; and Modern period, first grade pupils. The pupils of the different periods will be dressed in costume to match the period represented.

Following the "crowning" ceremonies there will be songs, flower drills and the never-to-be-forgotten May pole, and dance. Following the May pole dance County Superintendent of Schools E. O. McCowan will deliver an address followed by Fred Shelton, clerk of the school board.

At the conclusion of the addresses there will be a number of

NOSE CLOGGED FROM A COLD OR CATARRH

Apply Cream in Nostrils To Open Up Air Passages.

Ah! What relief! Your clogged nostrils open right up, the air passages of your head are clear and you can breathe freely. No more hacking, muzzling, mucous discharge, headache, dryness—no struggling for breath at night, your cold or catarrh is gone.

Don't let a cold or catarrh of the nose ruin your life. Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils, let it penetrate through every air passage of the head; soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief. Ely's Cream Balm is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer has been seeking. It's just splendid.

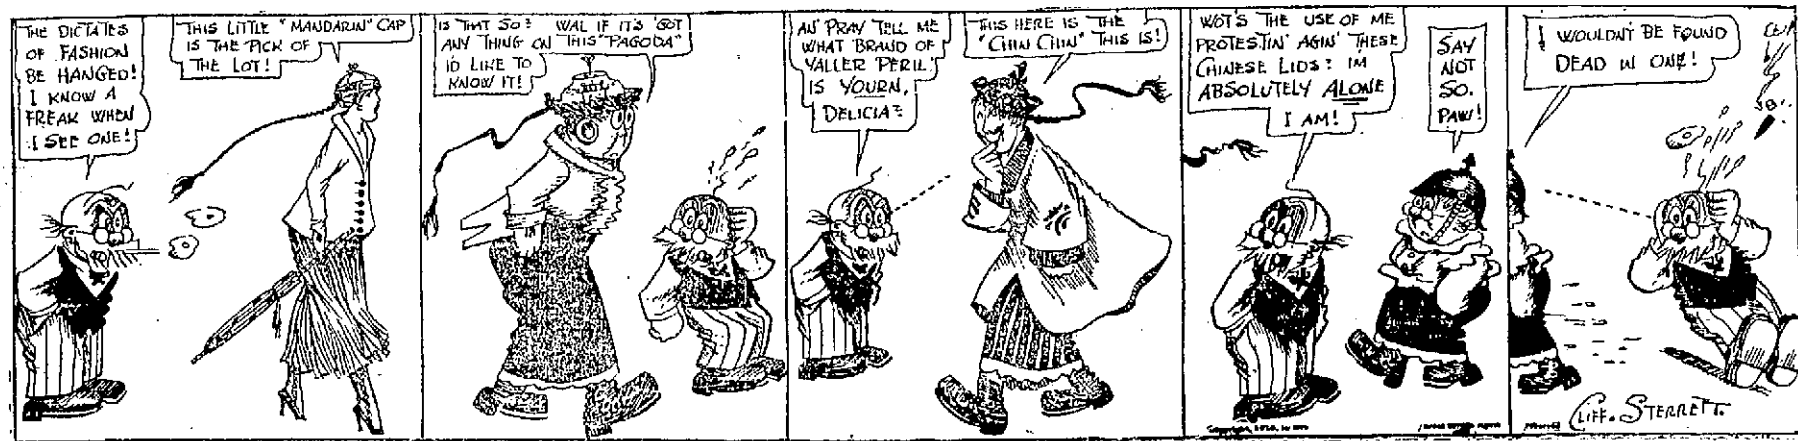

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush out the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real person shortly. If you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad. Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

JAPANESE CLAMOR

failure of the present negotiations would excite the profound disappointment and indignation of the Japanese people.

The statements given out today that Japan proposed to commute to China the irreducible minimum of her demands, to be followed later by an ultimatum should China continue to prove intractable, have met with popular approval. Japan officials are denying that there is any purpose of sending an ultimatum, but they are permitting it to be understood among the Japanese that the situation has reached a crisis. A dispatch has been received here from Sasebo, the naval base, saying that if the negotiations with China were broken off the second and third Japanese fleets would sail for the north of China.

The Japanese government has replied verbally to all points in the American note on the subject of the Chinese situation. It is seeking to assure America that it has no intention of violating the rent agreement concerning the open door in China, or of prejudicing the rights of Americans in China. The greatest interest exists today among the Japanese as to whether the United States is satisfied with Japan's explanations of its Chinese policy.

The departure from Japan, April 17, on leave of absence, of George W. Guthrie, the American ambassador, is interpreted here as indicating that Japan and the United States are in accord on this question.

General Exodus of Japanese From Mukden

The Japanese consular orders issued May 3 resulted in a general flight of Japanese from Mukden the following day. The value of a gold yen increased thirty silver cents and a rich harvest was reaped by exchange brokers. All Japanese civilians, except a few bankers and railway officials, now have left the city.

All classes of Chinese viewed the exodus with stolid indifference, not insulting or molesting in any way the persons leaving the city. Although the natives are deeply perturbed the city remains absolutely quiet.

Japanese troops occupy strategic positions in Mukden while Chinese soldiers are reported to be moving into position to the south of the city. Many of the residents in the district are coming north.

Baracks At Hankow Prepared For Siege

Hankow, (Via Peking), May 6.

The Japanese barracks here have been prepared for a siege. Following the consul's advice many Japanese have left the city, although the Chinese appear wholly indifferent. Several prominent native residents were entertained at dinner last night by some of the leading Japanese citizens.

The resolution sets forth "that this house agrees to such measure of retaliation as is essential to prevent such gross and unparalleled conduct of the rules of warfare, however, to the condition that in the preparation of any gas used the 'His Majesty's military forces the utmost regard be paid to the dictates of humanity.'"

sifting all the news from the eastern arena of hostilities, admit this morning that the German Allies have inflicted several considerable local defeats upon the Russians on the West Galician front but they point to the fact that the entire front has not been crushed, as was at first claimed, and that the stubborn fighting is proceeding.

London Acutely Interested In Far Eastern Situation

In view of the complexities of the situation there is comparatively little comment in the London papers on the Chinese-Japanese situation. Nevertheless, there are indications that the public is acutely interested in the progress of the negotiations between Tokio and Peking.

Artillery boomed in London. The shots were not aimed at air craft or any hostile ruler but were in honor of the fifth anniversary of the accession of King George to the throne.

Retaliation Measures Against Use of Gases

The suggestion that Great Britain adopt measures in retaliation for the use of gases in battles by the Germans took concrete form today. Joseph King, representing the North district of Somerset in the House of Commons, announced his intention of introducing a resolution on this subject on Tuesday.

The resolution sets forth "that this house agrees to such measure of retaliation as is essential to prevent such gross and unparalleled conduct of the rules of warfare, however, to the condition that in the preparation of any gas used the 'His Majesty's military forces the utmost regard be paid to the dictates of humanity.'"

Alleged Meat Thieves Are Bound Over; Other Police News

Outbursts in maintaining his innocence, vigorous efforts to out-talk the court and wild gesticulations such as throwing his hands six feet into the air and asking to be struck dead on the spot if he was telling an untruth availed Bill Owens nothing and he was held equally guilty Thursday with Joe Moore, also colored, of stealing lard and smoked meats from the George Jacobs meat market. They were held to the grand jury in the sum of $500 each and committed to the county jail.

It developed from the testimony of the numerous witnesses that Owens had been in Moore's company frequently of late. Moore was employed at the butcher shop as a laborer. They were seen about the stable Wednesday. Richard Sprouse, a white man employed there, saw Owens "hot-footing" it up the alley with a 25 pound can of lard and a ham which were later found at his home. Moore showed fight when Sprouse accused him and he was captured after an exciting chase. Later he tried to run away from police headquarters.

Owens resorted to all sorts of means to show up his companion as a culprit but as the investigation progressed the testimony implicated him just as strongly. Rachel Roberts, a boarding house-keeper, told of buying a ham from him for $1.35 though it was worth several dollars. Eliza Underwood bought one of him at the same price she said but Owens later returned and threw the money into her house refusing to take the ham away when she asked him to.

Belle Powell also told of buying a shoulder from Owens. Others had seen him and Moore together and had overheard conversations between them about selling stuff and Moore nearly always carried a handle under his arm in moving through the alleys.

Moore, it also developed, had paid for his room and board at Ben Bell's restaurant, the past two months with meat.

Ruby Was Fined $100

Ruby Dean was fined $100 for conducting a disorderly house at 629 Second street. She was released on $25 bond after her home was raided late Wednesday night and did not appear in court. Young women giving the names of Dorothy Reed, Myrtle Howell and Ruth Lewis were fined $10 each while prominent young men, who gave the fictitious names of Arthur Jones, Frank Wilson, Arthur Johnson were fined $25 each.

Bostwicks Are Fined

Dick and Charles Bostwick were fined $20 each for fighting at their home, corner Front and Waller streets Wednesday night. Charles had objected to Dick punishing his young son because he did not show up in time to help unhitch his horse and in said to have struck him with a club. In the melee "Club" was thrown against some glass and cut about the arm and shoulder. Dick meanwhile confiscated a small gun from his brother's trunk for fear he might ultimately use it against him and this really caused his arrest.

"Catsy" Sly who was drunk and abusing his people was fined $10 and committed to the city work gang. Tom Sabba drew a $5 fine for disorderly conduct. John McJohnson, who was caught loitering about the Titus homestead on Front street, was fined $10 for disorderly conduct.

FRESH AIR CAMP FUND; WHAT IT MEANS TO ALL

Many people have asked the question as to the purpose of the fresh air fund being raised by the Anti-Tuberculosis League, under the direction of Mrs. McFadden. This fund is to meet the expense of a summer fresh air camp for the treatment of beginning cases of tuberculosis in our city. Health officers claim there are at least 500 cases of tuberculosis in Scioto county. A very large percentage of these cases are in our city. Most of the cases live under impossible conditions for a cure, and very dangerous conditions for the other members of their family, their neighbors and the public at large. So the purpose of the fresh air camp would be to take some of the beginning cases, living under unfavorable conditions and give them fresh air, and nutritious food, and at the same time teach them the correct way to live, so that they may not only be cured themselves, but prevent their own loved ones, their friends and the public in general from contracting the disease from them.

Whether you are doing your part by giving a sum of money direct, by promoting the "society whirl" scheme, by purchasing the tickets or any other means, the money all goes to the one fund. Your contributions not only help a worthy cause but you are helping to protect yourself from contracting the disease.

The fresh air camp will be directed by Mr. Simon Labold, Jr., Irving Drew, Mr. F. L. Marting, Judge Harry Bell and others; who are giving freely of both their time and means. This is an assurance of a judicial and economical management of the camp.

DYING MOTHER WINS

Pleadings of a dying mother softened the heart of Juvenile Judge Beatty late Wednesday afternoon, and he suspended the sentence of Ben Dabney, the colored youth, sentenced in juvenile court Wednesday to the Boys' Industrial School at Lancaster for delinquency. Dabney was convicted of petty thefts at the Washington hotel about a year ago, but he skipped the town and avoided arrest until his return to the city a few days ago. His mother is reported in a critical condition at her home in the North End.

Claims Her Husband Was A Fast Liver

Gross neglect of duty and abandonment is charged in the divorce petition of Christina M. Medley, wife of Ora Medley, a former resident of this city, filed in common pleas court Thursday morning by Attorney Theodore K. Funk. The wife makes her home at present with her mother at Black Fork.

Mrs. Medley avers in her petition that she was married to her husband in this city on September 15, 1913, and that they have no children. She alleges that from their marriage her husband refused to provide a home for her, but spent his money in dissipation and fast living. She claims that she has been living wholly on the charity of her relatives and friends since May 1st, 1914.

She seeks divorce, restoration to her maiden name, and whatever other relief the court deems proper.

COLORED FLOWERS FOR THE LIVING AND WHITE FLOWERS FOR THE DEAD

In observance of Mothers' Day, Sunday May 9, many flowers will no doubt be worn and local florists are preparing for a heavy sale of flowers.

A new style of floral remembrance for dear old mother has been generally adopted all over the country and will be followed in this city. For mother's memory, the one who has departed to the Greater Life, white flowers are to be worn. For mothers living those who remain to enjoy the dedication of the day and the noble respects paid by the children, the colored flowers are to be worn.

Pig Iron Active

Cleveland, May 6.—The Iron Trade Review today says:

The confidence of business men in approaching prosperity has been shown by the purchase of from 75,000 to 100,000 tons of pig iron by New York capitalists who are in no way connected with the iron and steel trade and are buying entirely to hold the iron with the expectation of a substantial advance. Both northern and southern foundry and steel-making grades are involved. Advances by Virginia and Alabama furnaces in prices of pig iron have caused a more cheerful feeling in the southern states. Buying at Chicago in April was far ahead of that in March. There is fair activity in pig iron in the central west.

Export demand for machine tools has again assumed tremendous proportions. While exaggerations and denials as to orders for war materials make it difficult to state definitely what business is bonafide, orders actually placed or soon to be entered are unquestionably of great volume. The building of numerous additions to plants engaged in the manufac-

SAYS "SUNDAY" REFORMS NOT OF A LASTING KIND

Cleveland, O., May 6.—Cheered and applauded by nearly 300 business and professional men, Rev. Dr. Dan F. Bradley at the weekly luncheon of the chamber of commerce yesterday noon, opened a 42-centimeter battery, ridding Evangelist Sunday, his doctrine, language and methods.

The pastor of the Pilgrim Congregational church declared "the holy Brumby" would not come to Cleveland at the invitation of the ministers, or "rogged-eyed chumps, to use his most mild and felicitous phrase."

The saving of souls, Rev. Dr. Bradley declared, is of secondary importance with "the champion swearer," and money-getter and the business men with money alone can induce him to cure Cleveland.

Several times Rev. Dr. Bradley declared that certain chamber members were bending their efforts to bring Sunday to Cleveland. He urged them to submit the question to a committee of Cleveland church men.

As a matter of fact, the reforms he is supposed to bring about are neither real nor lasting.

Suit Is Postponed

The absence of Boss Hunt, a brick plant employee, who resides in Kentucky, necessitated a postponement of the trial of the case of James L. Hannah against Frank Nordi, assigned for hearing before Squire A. J. Finney this morning. The jury had been sworn and all witnesses were present except Hunt, who is regarded as a material witness for the plaintiff, when the adjournment was taken until a date to be decided later.

Hannah is suing Nordi for $150 for alleged damages to his buggy and harness and injuries to himself in a collision between his buggy and Nordi's motorcycle on the Chillicothe pike on April 26th last, which he claimed was caused by Nordi's carelessness. The motorcycleist has entered a counter-suit for $100 damages to his motorcycle, claiming that Hannah was at fault.

Hannah is represented by Attorneys Mihner, Miller and Searl, and Theodore K. Funk is Nordi's attorney.

Oxalic acid will remove iron rust from white goods, but I fear it will injure the color of a blue dress. Why not soak the spot in buttermilk.

Dear Dolly.—How would be a nice way for a girl graduate to wear her hair? Should I wear a wreath of flowers?

SWEET GIRL GRAD.

Wear your hair the way you always wear it. You will feel better and look more natural. A wreath of flowers in your hair would make you look too fussy. Simplicity and unadornment will be best.

Dear Dolly.—I would like to have a remedy for black ants. If we don't get something pretty soon they will run us out and take possession of our house.

Sift together three cups of flour, a teaspoonful of salt, two teaspoonfuls of baking powder and a tablespoonful of sugar, two or three times. Then work in a third of a cupful of butter and add enough milk to make a sort of dough. Bake in two layers, spread over with butter, put together with sweetened strawberries and also cover the top layer with the berries. Lard may be used instead of butter for short-caking.

Dear Miss Wise.—How can I remove perspiration stains from a gray messaline silk waist?

SUBSCRIBER.

Perspiration stains may be easily removed by a solution of oxalic acid and water. Use a proportion of one drop of the acid to 20 drops of water. Sponge the stains carefully with this and hang in the air to dry. White vinegar and ammonia are also good for removing perspiration stains. They are to be used separately.

Sciotoville, O.—Dear Dolly.—I have seen where you have answered questions for others, so I thought I would ask a few. I had an argument with my brother about a so-called place in Ireland. Is there a place they call Arons Shore, and Dolly what is a Wheatature?

There is a small island at the entrance of Galway Bay on the coast of Ireland called Aran. That is probably what you have reference to. I do not know what you mean by Wheatature.

Would you advise me to marry a man who could not master his mind any better than that? He goes with other girls, but he doesn't want me to go with any one else. Now Dolly I love him, but I do not think he knows who he loves. Please give me your opinion.

Says Thin People Can Increase Weight

Food Alone Produces Fat, Says
Noted Expert—How to Turn
Food Into Healthy Flesh

The reason that some people are chronically thin and under normal weight is a noted authority, is because of a chronic leakage of the fat-making elements from their stomach and intestines are not working properly. Only a small portion of the food nourishment is absorbed and the rest is lost in the waste. The problem of gaining weight and flesh depends entirely therefore on a natural stopping of the disintegrative waste of fat and the correction and repair of the organs of assimilation.

For these reasons, the healthy man who has put on from ten to twenty pounds of weight a single year, has taken at meals for a few weeks, the natural, healthy, fat-making material, Sargol, does not of itself build flesh, but, swallowed with your food, it stops every mouthful you eat, first separating all the fats, oils, sugars, starches and other flesh-making materials from the food waste and then repairing all the nourishing elements in a form which the blood can easily absorb and distribute all over the body. Sargol stops the leakage of fats, keeps all the flesh-making materials within the body, and stores only the worthless waste to leave it. It further repairs the faulty organs of assimilation, so that the body gradually recovers its normal weight. Sargol is a natural and harmless and it is a scientific fact that it cannot produce an increase of from ten to twenty pounds of natural healthy flesh on any person who is underweight. Please read the other drugists everywhere sell it with a positive guarantee of weight increase or money back as found in every package.

Portsmouth's Volunteer Fire Department

(BY MILFORD KEYES)

Just when Fire Company No. 2 became independent is not precisely known; but it lived its splendid life as "Independent Fire Company No. 2," and when the time came for it to pass into the realm of memory that was the title it proudly bore. It was probably about the time it discarded the old Neptune and came into possession of its new machine, the Citizen. It was after the Ones became independently organized, for it is recalled that when the new engine arrived members of the Ones were on hand in a neighborly way to help set the new machine up and put her "on the track." Not all ways were the two companies thus neighborly, for there was a time, prior to this, when there was much jarring and ill feeling at fires, sometimes nearly resulting in conflict. With the coming of the new engine, however, and reorganization upon an independent basis, there was no more of this, and the two companies lived their lives in peace and worked together in harmony. We have already stated that Lew Ellis was in at the death of the Ones and assisted at the obsequies, but there appears to be no record of the final meeting of the Twos, when they officially gave up the ghost and went to the land where all good fire companies go. It is safe to say, however, that if there was a final and official passing out the late G. M. Gordy was somewhere around, for "Milt" was the care taker of the company so long as there was a company to take care of. But Milt has joined the silent majority and can communicate no information. The career of the company was a glorious one, it being practically the oldest fire organization. Their new engine house was built and occupied in the late fifties. Located, as it was, in the heart of the then business section of the city, its membership was always composed quite largely of Front and Market street business men and clerks. It was largely of the kind glove variety of fire company. Still there were plenty of draymen, mechanics and day laborers on the roll, and things always went along smoothly. There was a sprinkling of lawyers, and some editors, doctors and printers. It was maliciously reported at the time that many of these became firemen to escape jury duty, which, of course, was unthinkable. Anyway it was a swell company, always had full ranks at fires and on parade, and was to be heard from when anything was doing. They had a handsome uniform, and when they went to Chillicothe on an occasion already referred to, they quite took the breath away from citizens of our good neighbor. The only drawback was that the small boys rather anxiously referred to the fire hats of the Portsmouth men as "chicken coops."

Among the presidents were such men as James Lodwick, John L. Ward, L. C. Damarin, and others. The active men in charge of the engine and hose at fires were John and Ben McFarlin, Tom Carro, Almarine and Orange Branch, and many others. Almarine Branch was the father of A. A., or "Boh" Branch. Henry C. Lodwick was the secretary for many years, also Dan R. Spry and Thomas S. Currie. Mike Redinger, "Dutch Mike" was a member of the company, but Jim Hannahs, one of Mike's cronies, always said that the latter was never at the engine house except at roll call. His place of business was just across the street. Another man, alleged to be a roll call member, was a Front street merchant of Jewish proclivities, named Mike Seeburger. When twitted about it Mike didn't deny it, but patted his somewhat exaggerated frontal corporeity and said, "What good would I be at a fire? I'd shooze pa in da way". And they let it go at that.

Mr. Seeburger was a brother of the late Henry Seeburger, and went to New York City and became very wealthy. As already stated the date of the official going to pieces of Independent Fire Company No. 2 is veiled in mystery, but such cannot be said of the end of the company's fine engine. Strangely enough it met its death by fire, an element it was made to combat, and did combat nobly, during all its honorable life. In December, 1881, the Spry block was destroyed by fire, and this included the buildings adjoining on the north and west, the latter structure being the Number Twos' engine house. The fire was of mysterious origin, and began under the stairs leading to the hall in the second story. There were undoubted evidence of this fact, and it was ascertained at the time that an explosive was used. Any way the interior was a mass of flames before an alarm was sounded, and when the doors were broken open the hose truck was found to be ruined and the outer veneering and woodwork of the engine was charred to an unsightly crisp. The building was soon a burning mass, and the cupola was just high enough to act as a torch, which set fire to the mansard roof of the Spry building and the entire block was quickly destroyed. Mr. Spry, not desiring to take any more such chances, purchased the lot on which the engine house had stood from the city, and after the block was again destroyed by fire during the 1884 flood, he rebuilt the block as it is at present, the western portion being that on which the engine house stood.

The machinery and vital parts of the engine were not supposed to be injured, and Mike Redinger bought the wreck for one hundred dollars. Mike had no use for the engine, but he was dead game, and that was his way of doing. It again came into possession of the city and for a long time was kept in the enclosure in the rear of the Seventh street engine house, and was then sold to L. D. Ellis, who wrecked it for some valuable parts of the outfit.

The bell in the tower of the Number Two's engine house had a fine tone and is still in the service of the city, on the Offene street school house. The fire didn't injure it, though it fell to the ground floor.

It isn't often an engine house is destroyed by fire, but such was the fate of the one which housed the gallant "Twos."

DEATHS ONE YEAR APART

A very peculiar incident was connected with the death of Mrs. Anna Cornwall of the Home For Aged Women, Tuesday afternoon. It was just one year ago Tuesday that Mrs. Ellen Bail passed away.

Early Tuesday the matron, Miss

Larsh, mentioned the fact to a young lady at the home, afterwards saying that it would not be a great surprise to her if Mrs. Cornwall died on the same day.

"Something just seemed to tell me it was going to happen," said Mrs. Larsh.

Signal honor was conferred upon another Portsmouth boy Wednesday in Cincinnati, when the Ohio State Medical Association in session there elected Dr. Clarence Selby managing editor of the Ohio State Medical Journal. Dr. Selby had been secretary-treasurer of this organization. He is located in Toledo and is a son of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Selby who formerly resided here.

Dr. J. S. Rardin, of this city, was honored also, as he was elected counselor of this, the Ninth district.

Plan Big Things For Opening

—PRESIDENT GABLEMAN

"We are busy at work on our opening day plans and expect to complete them by the end of the week," said President Gableman Thursday. "Portsmouth has, we believe, a lot of baseball openings, but we are planning bigger things for next Tuesday's opening with the Chillicothe Babes than ever before."

The fans are interested in our new team and hundreds of fans will turn out to get their first glimpse of the revamped club," continued Mr. Gableman. "The River City band will render a concert before the game in Millbrook and both teams in their epic and span uniforms will march from the pennant pole to the grand stand."

where they will meet the mayor, who will toss out a new ball and when the umpire announces the batter for the 1915 Ohio State League season will be on. Chief of Police McCarty has directed the patrolmen to get ready for the big parade. They will appear in their new uniforms and will make a splendid showing.

Huntington Defeats Mansfield Maulers In Duck Pin Match

Carl Ridgley's "Raven Rocks" evened up the duck pin match with Mansfield's Maulers of this city at Huntington last night, when rolling on the majestic alleys the local team lost the three game match by the margin of 23 pins, the winners fracturing the city record in order to accomplish the victory. The local team was accompanied to Huntington by a large band of rooters, who made the welkin ring at the start of a demonstration that seemed to sport them on and at the same time disconcert the Huntington bowlers. Portsmouth took the first game by the splendid margin of 52 pins and it looked as though they had the series clinched right then and there. However at this point of the match it was absolutely necessary for six of the rooters to leave and from then on, Portsmouth dropped back while the Raven Rocks kept plugging along, wiping out the big lead and going like a prairie fire in the third game when they copped the bacon with pins to spare.

Prediger was high man for the locals, gathering 382 pins. Wilhelm came second with the sum of 345. McCormick was third with 333. At Wurster rolled in but two games, gathering an average of 111. Mansfield der captain, averaged 110. Mansfield in practice had the big audience sitting up and taking notice as a result of his skill. However, in the game, things broke badly for the captain and he rolled far below his average. York got into the last game and clipped off 125.

The local boys were shown one grand good time by the Huntington artists. The following rooters accompanied the team: Fred N. Tyner, Harry E. Taylor, Lynn Wittenberg, "Pat" Kelley, P. W. Sheridan, Gene Wurster and Elmer Heisel. The scores:

Portsmouth	339	132	151	232
Prediger	112	108	118	233
Wurster	115	107	...	232

Dream On

Down in Cincinnati the fans are clinging to the slender belief that when peace comes in the baseball world Mansara will return to the Rhinelanders. "Mansara would help out a lot in the Red outfield as Griffith a reputed slugger is not tapping the ball in keeping with his advance notions."

SOME RECORD

Within the short space of two days, President William Gableman and Vice President Wm. Zottmann sold $1,000 worth of season books in the River City. Here is a record for the other towns in the league to shoot at.

"And we are not through yet. We expect to sell another $1,000 worth," said Mr. Gableman last night.

THIS WAY OUT

Probably the reason Ben Johnson wants to call off the big suit is because attorneys' salaries are high and no admission can be charged to the court room.

WILLARD HAS OFFER

Denver, Colo., May 4.—Johnny Corbett, manager of Young Corbett when the latter won the world's championship and manager of the first light club here, has offered Jess Willard $20,000 to meet Gusnot Smith here on July 4. Willard and Smith will be in Denver this week and it is hoped articles will be signed then.

Races

Columbus, May 6.—Columbus is getting ready for its annual automobile race meet. This year two days will be devoted to the speed sport. The dates are May 15 and 16, Saturday and Sunday. Never in the history of this sport has such a field of fine racers been assembled. Eighteen of the world's greatest drivers will be here to test their skill on the best mile track in the world.

A combination of the Sloan-Moross team has been effected. These two men handle the greatest drivers in the country. Heretofore they have been backing each other, but the Columbus Automobile club got the men together and they will race it out.

Out of town reservations can be made through the Columbus Automobile club.

Knocked Out

New York, May 6.—Jim Coffey, the Dublin giant, knocked out Helt, the New York heavyweight, in the third round of a scheduled ten-round bout at Madison Square Garden last night.

PASSES SENT OUT

Season passes were mailed to the preachers Thursday by the local club owners.

Merchants To Close For Chilly Opening

Chillicothe, May 6.—The local baseball season will open at Chillicothe on Thursday May 13 and the Twentieth Century band has been engaged to furnish the music on the opening day. Mayor Cahill will pitch the first ball to start the Babes pennant ward.

President Gableman of the Portsmouth club, informed Secretary McCarty that they were working to bring a special train on opening day, and would bring along the River City band. A great many merchants are going to close, so let's all get together and have a great big rousing Devore day and show Josh that the fans are with him in his attempt to bring a pennant winner to Chillicothe.

It is the intention to have as many automobiles in line, as possible, and have as many automobiles in line as possible, and have them traverse the down town streets.

O-O, RIGHT ON THE OLD BEANLET

What's in a name? Jawn D. McGraw is willing to admit there is a whole lot these blue-chilling May days.

Bonny Kauff plans to sue the Giants for the $25,000 promised him and McGraw may have to "Kauff up." Look out for the bean ball.

TAIL FEATHERS OF PEACE BIRD RUTHLESSLY PICKED BY JOHNSON

New York, May 6.—Hopes that the statement by President Johnson of the American league in Boston Tuesday, favoring withdrawal of the legal suits between the Federal league and organized baseball, presaged peace diminished today by a further statement from Johnson.

"No secret pact, regardless of the many conflicting reports has been signed between the American league and the Federal league," the American league president was quoted as saying. "The American league has no understanding of any kind with President Gilmore or his organization. There will be no peace as far as I am concerned."

LOCAL STUDENTS PLANNING TO HOLD INTERCLASS TRACK MEET

Prof. Robert Meeks and Prof. Trout of the high school faculty are working with a large number of boys who are deeply interested in the interclass track meet to be held sometime before school June 10. It is planned to hold the track meet in connection with an outing.

A place to practice pole vaulting will be fixed in the rear of the high school building. Students who are to take part in the hammer throw and short put are practicing every afternoon at Sixteenth and Findlay streets. After school each day a number of the students can be seen on Jackson street, running, jumping, and hurdling. The hurdles have been made by the manual training boys. There will be a two mile race, one mile and half mile dash, and a relay race. It will be the first meet of the kind ever attempted by P. S. students.

SPORT SALAD

Let it be known that Fred Merkle injured his arm in a collision with another player. There is no truth in the rumor that he jumped it against his head.

Connie Mack will not sell Frank Baker for $1,000,000, but we suspect that he will be able to change his mind if somebody offers him about $50,000.

Johnny Evers is suffering from a displaced bone. If it were loose Jim he would have an awful headache.

Manager McGraw says the Giants will be in the first division in two weeks.

As soon as Hughie Fullerton predicted a pennant for the Phillies they heard about it and turned right around and lost two straight games.

We have high hopes of the Reds winning a few games this summer. There are having the favorite diversion or one Buck Herzog is to be cut out for the fans in Cincy have Herzog's word that he will let the umpires alone and attend to his managerial affairs. The Cincinnati club may get dig up a real manager.

Infielders Sharrack, Johnson and Emory were released Wednesday night by President William Gableman. They are classy youngsters, but no room could be found for them on the local team. The fight for the second base job lies between Mettenry and Bush.

From St. Louis comes the report that Miller Huggins wants to retire as manager of the Cardinals, temporarily at least. Huggins is said to be in very poor health and is bordering on a nervous breakdown.

San Francisco, May 6.—Included in the entry list of the boxing championship tournament of the Panama Pacific Exposition, which is to be held tonight are the names of the best amateur boxers of the United States. Holders of all the National championships are here to participate as well as star representatives of athletic clubs throughout the country. It is thought that 20 bouts can be completed tonight.

Columbus, May 6.—Jack Calley, who followed this year as the Columbus shortstop, and then left fielder, was today sold to the Lincoln club of the Western League, and will report there as soon as possible.

Daley, formerly played in the Ohio State League.

Chillicothe, May 6.—It begins to look as if the local club is badly in need of a shortstop and second baseman. Yesterday Kimbal was brought in from the outfield to take a trial at short in place of Baleman. Kimbal is really an infielder and may in time be able to play this position. Yesterday Haller worked at second and did fairly well.

LADIES! LOOK YOUNG, DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe—no nobles can tell. Brains it through hair.

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur restores its appearance a hundred-fold. Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the tonic at home or get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wyle's Sage and Sulphur Compound." Thousands of folks recommend this tonic to use preparation, because it larkens the hair beautifully and removes dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair; besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustreous, and you appear years younger.

THE AMERICAN TOBACCO COMPANY

Council Firm On New Boston Water Works Muddle; Demands Repairs Along Street Car Track; Over-ride Mayor's Veto

Attempts made to draw city council into any controversy with New Boston over the question of charging property owners of that village for water service taps failed Wednesday evening.

When the councilmen took their seats they found type-written copies of the ordinance, passed in New Boston December 16, 1912, granting Portsmouth the right to place valves at street intersections, and providing that fire hydrants and water pipes be connected with same, to be used for no other purpose than fire protection, unless securing the consent of the city. These had been brought to Chairman Moeller, of the water committee, by Samuel Harper, the engineer of New Boston.

Mr. Moeller, in presenting the subject, spoke of the contention of New Boston citizens, that inasmuch as the village had installed its own service mains at a cost of $44,000, they felt that they should not be charged for taps.

"But they didn't build the water-works," retorted Mr. Westphal, adding that the amount they had expended was no comparison to what the city had undertaken. Mr. Moeller explained that he had not familiarized himself to any extent on the subject and proffered that the discussion be left to the other members.

Mr. Shump Thought The Matter Settled

Mr. Shump arose to a point of order. He felt the matter was settled with the New Boston council, as far as the city was concerned. He said that no official communication had been received from New Boston or its mayor, and he took the attitude that all that had been said was more hear-say and that any action that should be taken should be through the proper channels.

City Solicitor McCall reminded council that the power of fixing water rates was vested entirely with the service director.

Wanted Subject Entirely Ignored

Mr. Wilson took the stand that council had no part to play in the matter. He said the fact remained that there was a contract between the city and village and if either failed to live up to the same it was a matter between New Boston and the service department to fight out. He thought the subject ought to be ignored entirely.

Mayor Strongly Opposes N. B. Attitude

The mayor took the floor. He told of the caution employed in trying to get the villagers right and how they had installed connections against the city's protests. They had spent their money unnecessarily, he said, and were now wanting the city to furnish water free of charge. "We want to have supervision over our mains and just simply because they put in something they want the city to waive every right to collect," said he.

Continuing, the mayor said it would probably be up to the city engineering department to shut off New Boston's supply of water for the village ought not to receive any consideration. He held that the New Boston property owners should pay $5 for a tap just the same as Portsmouth citizens, for the city has got to keep up the service and that by installing their own service they did nothing more than Portsmouth in floating bonds. The individual property owner of New Boston, he said, had better do what the city asks. "The whole thing, he said, was a jumbled-up proposition. New Boston should name its streets and number its houses and pay for taps in the regular way. "We want to treat them fair, but there is a disposition to be too socialistic and they don't want to pay anything. We should deal with them rigidly and they have no right to tap our lines," he emphasized.

Mr. Gergens Tells Of Extra Trouble

"Service Director Gergens told of the extra trouble that the city is subjected to in supplying New Boston. Every time a tap is taken out or a leak reported it means that some city employee has to be sent to the village, and for that reason he had fixed upon a nominal rate of $2 per tap. A few New Boston property owners, he said, had paid for taps under protest and a committee of the New Boston council had promised to appear at this meeting. He said he had heard of threats on the part of some to dig down and take up the city's 24-inch main running through New Boston. He also reported that it had been arranged to make 45 taps on the north side of Gallia pike at $5 each.

A Lot Of Talk About "Nothing"

"President George M. Osborn ended the discussion by declaring that there was nothing before the house, and accordingly no action was taken.

Pass Resolution Over Mayor's Veto

The resolution whereby city council declares its intention not to interfere with the elimination of Kendall avenue grade crossing, after the overhead crossing is completed and which was recently vetoed by the mayor was revived by Mr. Shump. He moved to reconsider, Mr. Gulker seconding the motion. The chair ruled this to be in order and that the resolution take its regular course as though just introduced.

All members voted for the reconsideration save Mr. Westphal, he declining to vote. All voted for a suspension of the rules. Mr. Moeller moved the passage of the ordinance, it carrying with but one dissenting vote, that of Mr. Westphal.

Another Veto Overruled

Mr. Gulker now moved to reconsider the acceptance of the plat of the Buch & Snyder addition at East Portsmouth, which was also vetoed by the mayor. Rules were suspended, and upon Mr. Schumack's motion the ordinance passed unanimously.

Will Spend $3,000 On Widening Harvard St.

Chairman Gulker, of the street committee, brought up the proposed opening of Harvard place, through to Ninth street. He said the committee favored the plan No. 3 reported by the board of control of expending $3,000 for the widening of the street, provided the property owners were willing to stand an assessment of $2 per foot, otherwise proceed with the proposed paving of the street from Gallia street to its present terminus. Mr. Shump inquired if the city could assess the property owners. Solicitor McCall gave it as his opinion that it could not unless they agreed to it. The committee's report was received and filed.

Opinion On Repair Of Railway Tracks

The solicitor submitted a written opinion dealing on the city's rights to compel the street railway to keep up its tracks and roadway on the main line through the city. He held that where such improvements took on a permanent nature, such as a concrete base under the tracks, council should pass resolutions directing the company to do the work, while in mere repair work of a temporary nature the service director had the power to order the work done. Mr. Gulker asked if the city could ask the company to do more than what itself had done, such as ordering it to lay a concrete base when the city's portion of the streets was of gravel base. The solicitor expressed the belief that it could, for it was the street railway's wear and tear and vibration of tracks that put the streets in bad shape. He said on Ninth street the street railway's part was bad, while the city's portion was in good shape, but on Eleventh street the city's portion was equally as bad as that of the street railway.

The mayor now joined the discussion. He said the company last year had eliminated only the worst parts, then suddenly quit work, expecting to resume repairs this year, but no start had as yet been made in that direction, though he had just been advised by Supt. H. H. Higgins that the company was preparing to submit a proposal to the city to place its line through the city in good shape by bedding the tracks on solid concrete and probably wanted the city to bear part of the cost. He said it was certainly the company's duty to fix the streets.

Petition And Complaints Are Given A Hearing

An complaint by Mr. Wilson that the pool of water between Cushman Bros' mill and the Henry Hossman plant is becoming offensive, was referred to the service department.

A verbal petition by Mr. Westphal for a light at Eighteenth and Chillicothe streets was referred to the light committee.

A petition for a storm sewer on Poplar street, south from the corporation line to Gallia street, was referred to the street committee.

A petition presented by Attorney William J. Meyer, on behalf of Charles C. Hott, asking for a return curb at the private 36 ft. street on his Gallia pike property, Mr. Hott agreeing to bear the expense, or dedicate the street, if permitted to do so. Referred to service department.

Mr. Westphal reported that the petition for a storm sewer on the west side of Oakland avenue, between Seventeenth and Eighteenth streets, had evidently been misplaced, and as that section was badly in need of drainage he moved that the engineer bring in an estimate for the sewer. Motion carried.

Board Of Control Action On Maddock Alley

"The city board of control report, withholding recommendation of the purchase of any property for widening Maddock alley between Jackson and Fourth streets, instead advising a 2 ft. sidewalk on one side and an arc light, was received and filed. The board's recommendations that a citizen's committee be appointed to help consider the flood wall extension damage claims and the matter of moving properties west of Massie off the sidewalk to widen the approach to the new county bridge were also placed on file.

The solicitor was directed to bring in legislation appropriating $28.50 needed for the purchase of a dozen more valves for the water works street department.

An order of H. O. Smith to compromise his $1000 damage claim on his Chillicothe street property and $500 claim on his Fifteenth street property, providing council will lay new sidewalks for him, was referred to the law and claims committee. Director Gergens estimated the cost of the two walks at $50. Mr. Gulker thought the city should ask the N. & W. to lay the costs of the walk, as it was largely due to that railway that the claims for damages were made. Solicitor McCall thought it was not entirely due to the railway.

Mr. Henderson's Claim Allowed

Considerable merriment was indulged in when Director Gergens presented a $45 claim for L. H. Henderson, former street cleaning superintendent. The official referred to the claimant by his nickname, "Moogie," and this started the fun-making. He asked that amount for some cinder walks that he laid on Jackson street the first few days in January, 1914, under the direction of the former service department. Mr. Gergens explained that he had called in Henderson to ask a settlement of his water sprinkling bill, that Henderson settled, for same, excepting $15, which he promised to pay if the city gave him a check for the cinder work he had performed. Mr. Moeller inquired if the work had been authorized. He was informed that two days of it had been approved. Mr. Henderson had ever improved his Chillicothe street property with walks and what reasons he had given for not doing so. "He said he was not ready," replied the mayor. "Mr. Westphal felt that it was an easy way of collecting money, and upon his motion the claim was allowed."

Estimates Received On Several Sewers

Estimates were received for the Dexter avenue storm and sanitary sewer of $1,000, the Rice alley sanitary sewer, a branch of the Dexter avenue sewer, $654.10, and the G. Heinisch sanitary sewer, south from Ninth street, east of Offene, $246, and the solicitor was instructed to provide legislation.

An ordinance presented by Chairman Wilson, of the finance committee, appropriating $180 for restoring the cannon in Tracy park, $36 for restoring the cannon in Greenlawn cemetery, and $50 for repairs to public buildings was passed under a suspension of the rules.

Will Sod Henna Terrace

Chairman Gulker, of the street committee, reported that some misunderstanding must have resulted over the matter of terracing the Henna place in Kinney lane. He said the committee had recommended that, after the city got the dirt it wanted, to sod the place, the engineer had merely sown seed and the wall is washing down again. The committee, he said, did not feel justified in leaving the place in that condition. Mr. Shump supported this stand, declaring that Mr. Henna had gone out of his way to assist the city in its public improvements in that vicinity and that it was the city's moral duty to show its appreciation by doing something substantial for him. Upon his motion the engineer was ordered to sod the embankment and the solicitor to bring in legislation covering the amount.

Rules Were Suspended And Ordinance Passed Granting Charles Ball Permission To Remove A Four-room Cottage From 133 Second Street To The Rear Of 801 Court Street, He To Restore The Streets, If Damaged, To Their Former Condition.

Money Provided For More Improvements

Rules were suspended and ordinances passed appropriating $253.20 for the construction of the Adams bakery sanitary sewer west of Offene street, between Tenth and Eleventh streets, $575 for the Brown sanitary sewer in the alley between Tenth and Eleventh and Gay and Chillicothe streets, $1,000 for the Dexter avenue storm and sanitary sewer, $654.10 for the Rice alley extension sewer, and $245 for the Heinisch sanitary sewer.

THEY ALL DEMAND IT

Portsmouth, Like Every City and Town in the Union, Receives It

"People with kidney ills want to be cured. When one suffers the tortures of an aching back, relief is eagerly sought for. There are many remedies today that relieve, but do not cure. Doan's Kidney Pills have brought lasting results to thousands. Here is Portsmouth evidence of their merit.

Mrs. Harry Daulton, 818 Eleventh street, Portsmouth, says: "I believe a cold brought on kidney trouble in my case. I had a severe pain in the small of my back and found great difficulty in doing my housework. The action of my kidneys was irregular and the kidney secretions were unnatural. My feet swelled so badly that I couldn't put my shoes on and I had puffy spots under my eyes. I doctored and used several medicines with no relief. The first few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills made me feel better and by the time I had finished a full box, all signs of kidney trouble left and I was cured."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Daulton had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

er, of the light committee, the are light on Gay street, between Tenth and Eleventh streets, was ordered moved to the corner of Gay and Eleventh streets.

The second reading of the upper Gay street paving ordinance was held over until the next meeting, pending a report from the engineer, who was to have conferred with the N. & W. engineers relative to the railway's plans for paving or planking between its tracks.

The mayor brought up the annual matter of line for dumps, informing council it was the sense of the board of health not to antagonize council again on that score so that there will be no more contention about this in the future.

Mr. Westphal Wanted Money For Improvements

Mr. Westphal made a heroic, but unsuccessful effort to loosen the city purse strings, with a view to repairing Findlay street, which he said was in a horrible condition. He was told that the regular funds had become exhausted and that the finance committee had suspended operations. Undaunted he asked for enlightenment as to how to proceed to get some money. He was informed that the street extension fund held a balance of $2600, and his hopes revived. He promptly planned to secure at least a portion of this $2600, declaring that the Third ward was causing him much worry. His colleagues, however, refused to offer any encouragement.

Mr. Schumack, too, wanted some repairs made at the intersection of Second and Madison streets, but the brave efforts ended when Mr. Shump moved adjournment.

Big Mock Trial Tonight

The scouts of Troop 5 will hold one of the biggest and best Mock Trials of the season tonight at the German Evangelical Sunday School room, commencing promptly at 7:15 o'clock. The scouts have made quite a record in the sale of tickets, and a capably house is expected. Mr. Harry Porter, well known local comedian, will have the leading part of the trial, impersonating the character of one Cyrus Pumpkins, a West Side farmer. Miss Alma Davis will have the part of the Widow Budd, who is sweet on Farmer Pumpkins, and one of the chief witnesses for the prosecution. Russell Williams and Carl Walker will act the parts of Professors Blindein and Mysterio. Messrs. Howard Lowry will make up as the little German music teacher, Professor Dumphumy, and Goshel Riddle will act the part of Rastus Jones, a negro waiter. Darsio Hamilton will be known as Doctor Getwell. The Sunny South Minstrels, clever black face artists will also have a big part on the program. The case is against Harold Scott for rifling the pockets of Farmer Pumpkins at the street fair last week. Zachary Fugitt is also an accomplice of Scott's. Prof. J. P. Yener, of the high school, will be the presiding judge, and Richard Knost, bailiff. The prosecuting attorney will be Howard Graf, and the attorney for the defense, Hobart Samson. The admission is 10 cents.

Doctors At Home.

Drs. Harry Schirrmann and A. L. Test have returned from Cincinnati, where they attended a clinic there, which extended through most of the week and was attended by many of the most prominent surgeons and physicians in the country.

WRESTLING MATCH ENDS WITH BROKEN HIP BONE

A playful wrestling match between two youthful friends ended seriously about five o'clock Wednesday afternoon, when Harold Glendenen, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. James O. Glendenen, of Park avenue, suffered a broken bone in the upper third part of the thigh in a fall. He had been wrestling with Harold Dunn, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Dunn, of Officers street, in a vacant lot adjoining the Dunn home, and in falling twisted his right leg in such a manner as to fracture a bone.

The injured lad was removed to the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. S.

Walker, of 1519 Park avenue, where he has been staying since his parents left on a sojourn to Hot Springs, Ark., a few days ago. He was extremely restless during the night and was still uncomfortable this morning, but his condition is expected to improve. Dr. E. O. McCall, who attended his injury, stated that he would be laid up for six or eight weeks.

The Glendenen lad is a pupil of the eighth grade in the high school building. His father is assistant foreman of engines for the N. & W. His companion, Harold Dunn, is a sophomore in the high school. The mishap was accidental.

MISS ALICE A. NOEL RUN DOWN BY MOTORCYCLE; SUFFERS BROKEN RIB

Alice A. Noel, a maiden lady, aged about sixty years, living on the Chillicothe pike near the boulevard road, was run down and painfully injured by a motorcycle on Gallia street, near the post-office building, about 8:45 o'clock this morning. She was knocked unconscious by the fall, and did not revive until some time later at her home, to which she was removed in Lynn's ambulance.

The name of the motorcycle rider has not been learned, although the police have the number of the machine and expect to locate him. He hurried away from the scene, however, before the police could ascertain his name.

Miss Noel had just come out of the Central National Bank building, where she had transacted some business, and had started diagonally across Gallia street in the direction of the First National Bank corner. As she stepped off the curb landing into the alley between the Central Bank and the post-office, the motorcycle approached her, coming west on Gallia street at a speed variously estimated by spectators at from eight to ten miles an hour.

The motorcycleist observed Miss Noel stepping out into the street, and veered his machine to go around her, according to eye-witnesses. She stepped forward in the same direction. The rider again changed the course of his machine to go back of her, and she then took a step backward, stepping right into the path of the machine, spectators say.

She was struck a glancing blow by the front wheel and hurled to the ground, alighting heavily upon her head and shoulders. Her nose was badly cut, while she sustained painful bruises about the lips and chin.

An examination by Dr. Martin, after Miss Noel had been taken to her home, disclosed the fact that one of her ribs on the left side, near the heart, had been fractured in the fall. It also developed that two of her front teeth were broken. The fracture was reduced and the victim was reported as resting easily this afternoon, although still suffering greatly from the shock.

Dr. G. W. Martin was hurriedly summoned to the scene, and he removed her to his office on Sixth street in his automobile, where first aid was rendered. She was later removed to her home in Lynn's ambulance, where she revived. Attorney Mark Crawford, who accompanied her to her home in the ambulance, stated upon his return that the attending physician did not regard her injuries as fatal, though very painful.

Eye-witnesses declare the motorcycleist was the worst scared young man they had ever seen. Philip Hulse held him and John Russell also advised him to remain on the spot until police arrived. When he started away he was so excited that he came near running into Lynn's ambulance.

The young man had a grey-colored Harley-Davidson machine with license tag number 12000, say persons who were attracted to the scene.

It was reported about town this afternoon that the motorcycleist hailed from Ashland, Ky., but this could not be confirmed. At a late hour this afternoon the local police had no clue that would lead to his identity, outside of the tag number. The state register of motorcycles at the mayor's office does not go beyond the 40000 mark.

DOLLAR CIRCULATES

The circulation of the "Buy at Home" dollar was limited Thursday. Jacob Schaefer, proprietor of the Schaefer Confectionery of Second street spent it for a watch repairing job at Frank White's jewelry store on Second street, and he in turn bought an order of cakes with it at Knittle's bakery across the street. A clerk at Knittle's gave it in change and the dollar was later spent at the Salvage store on Chillicothe street.

SECOND ARREST

For the second time in two years, William Conley, of Stewartsville, was taken into custody Thursday morning by Deputy Sheriff Romie Arthur on a paternity charge, preferred by Mary F. Great-house, of New Boston. An unusual feature of the case is that the Great-house woman caused his arrest the other time, which was followed by a compromise. Conley is in the county jail, awaiting a hearing before Squire Finney, which will be held some time Friday.

Mr. Bannon Accepts Ordinance For N. & W.

Attorney Henry T. Bannon, as counsel for the N. & W. railway, called at the city building Thursday and accepted the Lawson Run overhead crossing ordinance and also the Kendall avenue subway resolution which has just been passed over the mayor's veto.

Mr. Bannon stated that he expected to communicate with the B. & O. S.-W. officials at once and also obtain their acceptance of the ordinance and resolution. The next step then will be to have council transfer the $12,000 Kendall avenue subway bonds to the sinking fund and enable the trustees of that board and permit that body to invest the $12,000 subway bonds in the overhead crossing now that the underground crossing plan has been abandoned. All bonds of abandoned public projects are required to go to the sinking fund.

FILTHY ALLEYS SCORED; MORE COME-DOWN ORDERS

Deputy Fire Marshals Bell and Hamilton and Fire Chief McQuat resumed their tour of inspection of the city Thursday morning, covering all territory west of Chillicothe street between Fifth and Tenth streets. They found a number of the alleys in a filthy condition, and clean-up orders will follow the outcome of their visit. Some of the alleys, however, were in good condition.

About a dozen orders to raze properties were added to the previous list during the morning trip. They include alley buildings mostly, which are regarded as unsanitary and fire hazards.

This afternoon, the trio started in on the territory east of Chillicothe street and hope to reach the east end by tomorrow morning. Notes of unsanitary conditions and fire danger are taken all along the way for future action.

The Clean-Up committee of the Woman's Federation is still active making notes of undesirable conditions wherever they exist, and are co-operating with the authorities in seeking to have them remedied. Mrs. Howard Sellards, the president, has written the following open letter to the citizens of Portsmouth:

"The Clean-up committee wishes to thank all who have helped to carry out the idea of beautifying and having a clean city. The way to have a clean city is to keep it clean. Don't let trash accumulate in back yards. To keep sickness away, keep garbage cans covered. A ten-cent land can make a good receptacle if no other can be obtained. The city is doing the best it can with such limited means as it has. This is not the work of a few, but let every woman join in helping the city to abide by the laws. The grocers should see to it that everything is covered that flies could molest and meat shops should not leave meat exposed to the flies. All stores and restaurants should have fly traps. Those having horses should keep manure boxes covered and all who can should be connected with sanitary sewers.

"Let us have a clean city. Let us not have stranger say 'Portsmouth is the dirtiest town I ever was in; that dish water is running on the pavements,' which is now the case, and will be, till we have more sewers. But let us use what sewers we have; let the city have gone to the expense to put those in and let us be benefited by them and help pay for them by connecting with them."

Complaints referred to City Sanitary Inspector Arthur Huntington Thursday were the following:

Unsanitary closet in the Geo. Sheppard property at 402 Court street; had drainage in the alley of Mrs. Charles Purcell, near Fourth and Washington streets; water filled cellar in Stanton property at Second and Market streets; water filled cellar at Interstate cement house No. 439 5th street; foul outhouse at Heinrich brick yard; had vault at Officer Arthur Ridings' property on Chillicothe street; corn cobs thrown into pool of water near Coburn mill producing offensive odor.

The city has requested the Interstate Transfer and Storage company to improve its property at Second and Jefferson streets with new sidewalks.

Reservoir Floor Is Not Up To Standard

It developed during the investigation following the discovery of leaks in the city reservoir that the floor of the basin was much thinner in some sections than specifications called for. The attention of Contractor M. H. Shumway was called to the fact by Mayor Frick, who made a personal investigation.

Mr. Shumway stated he had been disappointed in the work himself and was the victim of misplaced confidence in those in active supervision of the work, but that he would make the work satisfactory in every way. He said that while the floor was much too thin in some spots it was thicker than specifications demanded in other places. He said he intended to make everything satisfactory and now has men engaged in this work.

THE MAIN IDEA OF HOME

A government report makes the observation that one of the most remarkable developments in invention is the number of articles and ideas being devised to make the work of women easier.

This means the best brains and the best thought of the country are being concentrated at the very point they should be, in the home. For there is the distinctive work of woman done. And it is well that it is so. Strange, indeed, is it that though our chief interests are centered in home, though it holds that which is dearest to us, wife and children, it's the one great thing we strive, plan and toil for, yet until of comparatively recent date, little of our energy, little of our efforts, comparatively, were given to making the tasks of her, who presides thereover and spends most of her life therein, less irksome---the wife and mother. Glad, indeed, is the day that this is changed. Genius is not only approved, it stands good chance of handsome reward when it invents any contrivance not too complicated and not too costly, that will make woman's home work easier.

Naturally, a good portion of effort is directed into the production of electrically operated devices, for in the first place, electricity has one quality that commends itself to women, it is clean in itself; it doesn't soil and it doesn't clutter up or make any disorder, and it does its work noiselessly.

Yes, there isn't another thing in all the world that is such an aid to woman and home as electricity. Of course, to profit of it, there has to be the current in the house. And this is just the thing we want to talk to you about, you husband, lord and master. Electricity so undeniably produces the most convenient light, that there is no use talking about that point. It produces the best and most economical light, because you can have as little or as much of it as you want with the least possible annoyance. It is the safest because it avoids any sort of a flame and flame is always a source of more or less peril to a woman. Electricity is in common use for ironing, its use for cooking is becoming quite general and it will not be so many years before it will be used for general heating purposes. It supplies small power in a thousand different ways.

But why say more about it here---it is woman's best friend. You surely want the best for your wife and home.

Yours to serve,

The Portsmouth Street Railroad & Light Co.

JAPANESE CLAMORING FOR WAR

ALL FACTIONS FAVOR JAP PREDOMINANCE OVER THE CHINESE

Peking, China, May 6.—The ultimatum of Japan to China reached the Japanese government today. It probably was presented to the Chinese government this afternoon.

Tokio, Thursday, April 22.—(Mail to Shanghai, May 6.)—The world wide publication of the list of demands presented to China by Japan shortly after the defeat of the German garrison at Kiau Chow and which still are being negotiated between the two governments, coupled with the reports of growing opposition to them in England and the attitude on this whole subject of the United States has greatly embarrassed the Japanese government, from which the people expect much.

Various political associations in Japan are clamoring for drastic measures against China. Everybody is discussing the possibility of war and speculating upon the nature and the extent of the military campaign Japan would have to undertake should China refuse to cede. All parties and factions in the country are united in favor of Japan establishing a predominance in China, which country is regarded as the natural field for the needed Japanese expansion.

Press Urges Government To Stand Firm In Oris
The semi-official press is urging the government to stand firm in spite of the criticisms of foreign countries and it is giving expression to the belief that the failure of the present negotiations would excite the profound disappointment and indignation of the Japanese people.

The statements given out today that Japan proposed to communicate to China the irreducible minimum of her demands, to be followed later by an ultimatum should China continue to prove intractable, have met with popular approval. Japan officials are denying that there is any purpose of sending an ultimatum, but they are permitting it to be understood among the Japanese that the situation has reached a crisis. A dispatch has been received here from Suifu, the naval base, saying that if the negotiations with China were broken off the second and third Japanese fleets would sail for the north of China.

Villa Sympathizers Driven From Homes

Douglas, Ariz., May 6.—Because they sympathized with the Villa cause, residents of San Miguel, Sonora, were driven from their homes by the Carranza adherents in neighboring towns of Davis and Basora after an attack in which five men and a woman were killed and several wounded, according to a report brought here early today.

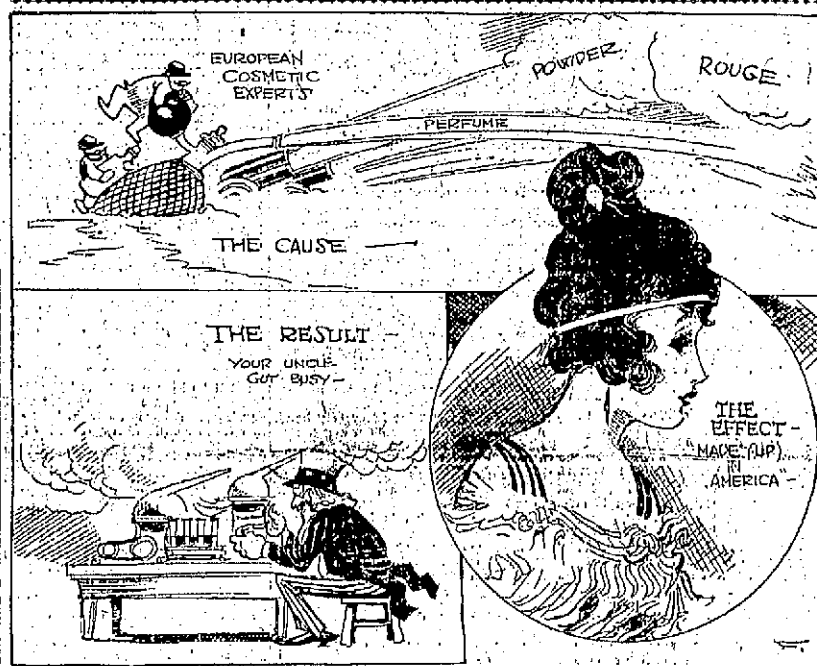

Mrs. Carman's Maid Sticks To Her Story

Mineola, N. Y., May 6.—Court for Mrs. Florence Carman was prepared today to continue the cross examination of Celia Coleman, the negro maid, in Mrs. Carman's trial for the murder of Mrs. Louise D. Bailey at Freeport, last summer.

For two and a half hours the negro maid without the questioning of Mrs. Carman's attorney without a breakdown of her story. She had again declared that Mrs. Carman said to her after the shooting at the Carman home, "I shot him," and later, "What did I kill that woman for? I hope God will forgive me."

GALLAGHER BILL PASSED; TEMPORARY PEACE IN OHIO COAL FIELDS IN SIGHT

SHOW GIRLS' COMPLEXIONS SAVED DESPITE WAR.

America Rises to the Occasion and Produces Artificial Aids Even Better Than Europe's.

"MADE IN AMERICA" FACES NOW THE THING.

Said against Old Man Ingenuity and his twin brother, American Power, are ready to avert another disaster threatened by the European war. They are going to save us from beholden on the stage a chorus looking exactly as it does off the stage.

Suppose the sprightly, elf on the left end of the chorus came out, revealed as the grandmother the look-alikes look-alikes she always is. Horrified! Or suppose that the beard and cream complexion of Miss Gladys was revealed in its true light—something of the general color scheme of watery coffee. Well, it is all, Gladys wouldn't be riding in taxicabs any more, unless she was paying for them herself. Why, the poor girl would be as close in the world as a theatrical photographer who never would touch up a photograph for a client.

This is just what was threatened by the war. No rouge, no powder, no lip sticks, no cosmetics—nothing to cover up the bad breaks made by nature. Noses that had forgotten to finish or ones which had been over generous, eyes that never would look right and complexion of the general tint—unattractiveness of an abandoned old maid—would have to continue just the way they were, and no matter what the styles demanded a girl would have to keep on the best she could with the color or lack of it originally which she had.

But, after all, this is not to be, and the girls can go on making themselves just as attractive as they can, no matter what their original handicap. The rouge makers may keep on filling another roll of holes, the powder makers may continue to serve to this kind of powder which splits and runs off the face, and the lipstick makers may keep on turning out making cosmetics that are more than their more plausibly attractive companions, but the country is not going to be deprived of its beauty aids, and nature, so far as these things go, will not be presented unadorned upon the stage.

When the war threatened a famine in the necessities necessary for facial art manufacturing perfume of the country ceased to the rescue of the chorus girls. When they could not get a thing from the other side they found something better here to take its place and began to turn out better products than their erstwhile foreign competitors. Now when a girl goes forth to twinkle her toes for the front row there is no reason why there should not be a "made in America" label on her dazzling complexion and shimmering hair.

McDERMOTT LICENSE BILL IS INTRODUCED

Columbus, May 6.—Senator McDermott, of Trumbull, late yesterday introduced in the senate the administration's liquor license decentralizing measure. Before adjournment was taken the bill had been sent to the temperance committee and reported out with a recommendation for passage signed by four members of the committee.

Senator Pink, of Hamilton, Republican, and Senators Fellingner, of Cuyahoga, and Holden, of Warren, Democrats, did not sign the report.

The governor and senate and house majority leaders have approved the new measure but it is said to be unsatisfactory to the Hamilton county delegations, and other Republican liberals. It will probably come up for a vote Friday.

The bill is considered a decentralization measure exclusively and contains no regulatory features not in the present law. It provides for division of the state into 34 license districts with Cuyahoga and Hamilton counties as separate districts; a state liquor traffic inspector at $9,600 a year, district licensing boards of two members of opposite politics to be appointed by a board made up of the county clerks, comty recorders and presidents of the board of county commissioners in the license districts; and a board of appeals of two members to be appointed by the governor.

The county license boards would have power to revoke licenses, but license-holders could appeal to the ty recorders and presidents of the board of county commissioners in the license districts; and a board of appeals of two members to be appointed by the governor.

The county license boards would have power to revoke licenses, but license-holders could appeal to the state board, the members of which would receive a per diem salary of $10 while in session.

A new feature of the bill is that all salaries and expenses would be subject to the approval of the state budget commissioner. The liquor traffic inspector and county boards would serve terms of two years.

The fans are interested in our new team and hundreds of fans will turn out to get their first glimpse of the revamped club," continued Mr. Gableman.

Huntington Defeats Mansfield Maulers In Duck Pin Match

Carl Ridgely's "Haven Hacks" evaded up the duck pin match with Huntington's Maulers of this city at Huntington last night, when following on the night of the first game in the series, the Huntington Maulers, Portsmouth, defeated the Huntington Maulers, Portsmouth, in a duck pin match.

The local team was accompanied to Huntington by a large band of rosters, who made the walking ring at the start off, a demonstration that seemed to amuse them on and at the game time, the Huntington Maulers, Portsmouth, look the first game by the splendid margin of 52 pins and it looked as though they had the series clinched right then and there. However, at this point of the match it was absolutely necessary for six of the rosters to leave and from then on, Portsmouth dropped back while the Huntington Maulers, Portsmouth, kept on playing like a pro, firing in the third game, when they capped the bacon with pins to spare.

Prekier was high man for the locals, gathering 382 pins. Williams came second with the sum of 335. McDermott was third with 331. At Huntington, the Huntington Maulers, Portsmouth, averaged 110. Mansfield, for captain, averaged 110. Mansfield in practice had the big audience sitting up and taking notice as a result of his skill. However, in the game, things broke badly for the captain and he rolled far below his average. York got into the last game and clinched off 123.

The local boys were shown one grand good time by the Huntington Maulers. The following rosters accompanied the team: Fred N. Tynes, Harry E. Taylor, Lynn Villenberg, "Pat" Kelley, F. W. Sheridan, Gene Wuester, and Elmer Heloff. The scores:

Portsmouth	330	322	314	382
McDermott	112	108	111	333
Wuester	115	107	111	333

Out of the race, reservations can be made through the Columbus Automobile club.

SPORT SALAD

Let it be known that Fred Markle injured his arm in a collision with another player. There is no truth in the rumor that he bumped it against his head.

Camie Mack will not sell Frank Baker for $10,000, but we suspect that he will be able to change his mind if someone offers him about $50,000.

Johnny Evers is suffering from a displaced bone. If it were Helene Zim he would have an awful headache.

THE HAND THAT SMITES.

Ever since the passenger fare on the railroads was reduced by the assembly from three to two cents per mile the carriers have been complaining of too heavy a cut, and, truth to tell, the years have been rather lean with them, though all is not attributable to the reduction in passenger earnings.

So much for an actual situation and now as to one predicament upon it. Last fall when our now good young governor was pergerinning over the state, he was promising much directly and a great deal more indirectly, that is as to the latter "he was leaving it to be understood." Being constitutional reactionaries the railroads were given to throwing a fit every time, the name of that ogre of progressivism, the wicked Jim Cox was mentioned. When the complainant Francis Bartlett Willis poured out the scene the magnates of great degree and most of those of no degree at all at once snuggled up to him, a savior and a deliverer. He gave them the glad hand and blithely they built expectations on his election, and far was it from him to discourage them. When he was inaugurated they appeared to reap the reward of the service they had rendered him. And right merrily ran the world away for the assembly seemed willing enough to oblige their friends the railroads and redeem any express or implied promise that was agreeable to the good young governor. Smoothly therefore ran the bill to elevate the mileage rate one-half cent. Suddenly, however, and is found on the track and a little investigation finds the villain biding in the executive chamber and it is none other than the good young governor himself. The drummers had begun setting up such a roar against the raise as only they can make and our good young governor, who never interferes with the legislature, until it becomes necessary to save his own bacon, just had the word passed around that he did not approve of an increase in railroad fare and thereupon the accident happened. Thus too is another fine expectation that the legal shackles would be taken off of business rudely shattered.

A LOSS OF MILLIONS.

A subscriber asks the Huntington Advertiser to give the loss to the country in the consumption of chewing gum, but that wary journal, having a due regard to the ruinous achievement of its fair readers, forbears to make anything like a definite answer.

And well it may, as to cover all the plumes of the cases requires not only tireless delving into and marshalling of statistics, but deep scientific deductions and intricate mathematical calculations. It will not do at all to say the productive or retail value of the gum made and sold in these United States reaches this or that sum and that stands for a loss. The question of whether there is an actual loss, or one that is far more important is complex and altogether a matter of dispute.

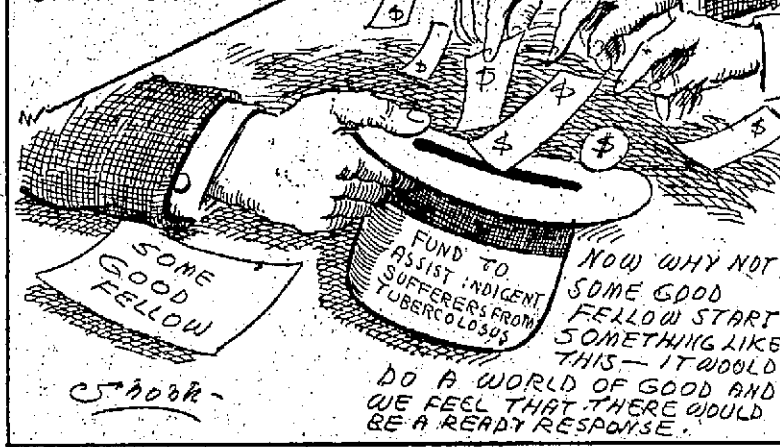

If we regard the chewing of gum as a vice in toto we might conclude every cent invested in the article as a loss, but we must remember that if millions are consumed in its purchase, some millions enter into its production and tens of thousands find employment in the labor involved. Assuming, however, that the use of the masticant involves a total loss, the actual loss does not stop there. The far greater damage is to be found in the waste and dissipation of energy, power. Energy, power, is but so much momentum and so many speeds. Thus if we reckon that the Huntington belle, in the mastication of her gum consumes only eight hours a day, spends her molars an inch apart each masticant, with a lifting force of eight ounces, and the velocity thereof is one hundred and twenty-three we can figure it out that in a day enough power is generated by the fair sex of the West Virginia metropolis to run an electric car down to Ashland and back, wash all the clothes in town every Monday, with enough surplus to keep the sewing machine busy sixteen hours a day. Now supposing we could take all the towns in the country, the villages, the hamlets and the open country and all the females in them that masticate gum and combine and harness the power they generate we would have a force greater than that of Niagara.

If all that is heard could only be believed the present sultan of Turkey would be an easy winner as the greatest of all the mighty war lords that Islamism has produced.

A CHANCE TO DO GOOD.

THE REPORT OF THE CITY VISITING NURSE, MRS. ANSTEAD, CALLS ATTENTION TO NUMEROUS CASES OF THIS KIND AMONG THE DESTITUTE OF THE CITY.

Things go by contraries. There are one hundred and twenty-two billion rabbits in Australia and men go out in armies and slaughter them by the tens of thousands to keep themselves from being eaten out of hand and home by "the varmints," while the government pays a bounty for their pelts. In America no one has ever counted 'em, but you have to pay if you are caught killing one "out of season."

"Sure," said the Man Who Always Stops on the Street, "I'm kickin' about them high water dresses and butter plate hats the women folks are wearin', just the same, I reckon, as old Adam complained about Eve's fig leaf costume bein' most all scollops."

John J. Ingalls, who was more of a cynic than a critic, said it was a mighty poor politician that wouldn't promise all his friends everything they asked him. That may have been so a good many years ago, but nowadays the politician has got to make good to win, or keep on winning.

Hundreds of women traveled from many distant climes to The Hague to hold a peace conference, and did nothing but wrangle and jaw with each other. Seemingly they are no more of a success at the business than men.

According to the Pittsburgh-Gazette we could all agree with Billy Sunday when he says it was the devil that invented the clock, if he will particularize and explain he has reference to the alarm variety.

The Bluefield Telegraph says no man can earn $25,000 a year. May be it is right, but there are men in this country being paid four times as much, and what is more other jobs at the same amount and better are busily looking for them.

CUPID INVADERS RANKS OF SCHOOL TEACHERS

Dan Cupid is going to play havoc in the ranks of the school marms of Portsmouth this summer, according to well defined rumors going the rounds of the teachers during the past week. Ten of them have confided to their close friends that they are to be married in June, and the knowing ones say that number does not represent one-half of the prospective brides between now and the first of next September. Superintendent Appel is expected to be called upon to fill at least two dozen vacancies in the teaching corps when he prepares the assignment of teachers next fall.

MAY DAY CEREMONIES AT WHEELERSBURG, O.

May Day will be fittingly observed by the Wheelersburg schools Friday all day. The teachers of the schools have been hard at work and have arranged a program that will take up the entire day.

Friday will be May Day and Patrons' Day in Wheelersburg school circles. The festival exercises are to be held on the school grounds. Every parent and all residents of the community are heartily invited to come early and spend the day.

The morning will be devoted to the parents and relatives and friends visiting the rooms and examining the exhibits of manuscripts and construction work which have been neatly arranged to form a very attractive exhibit. The work on display will show each child's work in comparison with others of the same grade.

Promptly at one o'clock the May Festival will start. Parents who come for all day should bring their dinners. The first thing in the May Day custom is to crown the May Queen who is to be Dorothy Peters, Sophomore student of the high school. Marjorie Mackoy, one of the attendants, will crown the Queen of May.

The crown she wears and the scepter she bears are both exquisitely fashioned of the Spring's choicest blooms. Averil Thinsinger, Nell Driver and Effie Reif are the other attendants to the May Queen. In honor of the Queen of the day there will be a pageant consisting of 72 pupils from the different grades who will march about the grounds singing a song appropriate to May Day. They will pay homage to her by distributing flowers at her feet.

The pageant will represent six different periods of history as follows: Greek period, high school pupils; Roman period, seventh and eighth grade pupils; Elizabethan period, fifth and sixth grade pupils; Colonial period, third and fourth grade pupils; Revolution period, second grade pupils; and Modern period, first grade pupils. The pupils of the different periods will be dressed in costume to match the period represented.

Following the "crowning" ceremonies there will be songs, flower drills and the never-to-be-forgotten May pole and dance. Following the May pole dance County Superintendent of Schools E. O. McCowan will deliver an address followed by Fred Shea, clerk of the school board.

At the conclusion of the addresses there will be a number of

IF BACKACHE OR KIDNEYS BOTHER

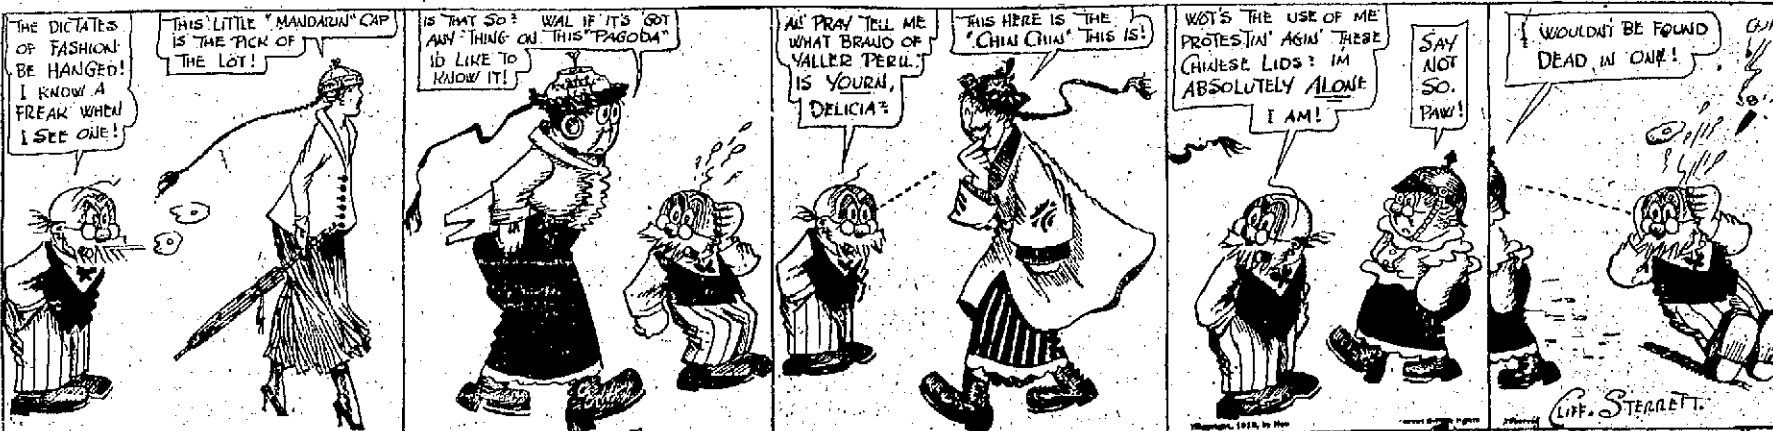

Eat less meat, and take a glass of Salts to flush out Kidneys. Drink plenty water.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush out the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidneys, you suffer from backache, a sick headache, dizziness, stomach gas, sour, tongue coated and you feel restless twinges when the weather is bad. Eat less meat, drink lots of water, also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithium and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts; folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

Council Firm On New Boston Water Works Muddle; Demands Repairs Along Street Car Track; Over-ride Mayor's Veto

Attempts made to draw city council into any controversy with New Boston over the question of charging property owners of that village for water service taps failed lamentably Wednesday evening.

When the councilmen took their seats they found type-written copies of the ordinance passed in New Boston December 16, 1912, granting Portsmouth the right of way through the village, the right to place valves at street intersections, and providing that fire hydrants and water pipes be connected with same, to be used for no other purpose than fire protection, unless securing the consent of the city. These had been brought to Chairman Moeller, of the water committee, by Samuel Harper, the engineer of New Boston.

Mr. Moeller, in presenting the subject, spoke of the contention of New Boston citizens, that inasmuch as the village had installed its own service mains at a cost of $14,000, they felt that they should not be charged for taps.

But they didn't build the water works, he pointed out, adding that the amount they had expended was no comparison to what the city had undertaken. Mr. Moeller explained that he had not familiarized himself to any extent on the subject and preferred that the discussion be left to the other members.

Mr. Shump Thought

The matter settled. Mr. Shump arose to a point of order. He felt the matter was settled with the New Boston council, as far as the city was concerned. He said that no official communication had been received from New Boston or its mayor, and he took the attitude that all that had been said was mere hearsay and that any action that should be taken should be through the proper channels.

City Solicitor McCall reminded council that the power of fixing water rates was vested entirely with the service department.

Wanted Subject Entirely Ignored

Mr. Wilson took the stand that council had an part to play in the matter. He said the fact remained that there was a contract between the city and village, and if either failed to live up to the same it was a matter between New Boston and the service department to fight out. He thought the subject ought to be ignored entirely.

Mayor Strongly Opposes N. B. Attitude

The mayor took the floor. He told of the caution employed in trying to set the village right and how they had installed connections against the city's protests. They had spent their money unnecessarily, he said, and were now wanting the city to furnish water free of charge. "We want to have supervision over our mains and just simply because they put in something they want the city to waive every right to collect," said he.

Continuing, the mayor said it would probably be up to the city engineering department to shut off New Boston's supply of water for the village ought not to receive any consideration. He held that the New Boston property owners should pay $8 for a tap just the same as Portsmouth citizens, for the city has got to keep up the service and that by installing their own service they did nothing more than Portsmouth in floating bonds. The individual property owner of New Boston, he said, had better do what the city asks. The whole thing, he said, was a muddled-up proposition. New Boston should name its streets and number its houses and pay for taps in the regular way. "We want to treat them fair, but there is a disposition to be too socialistic and they don't want to pay anything. We should deal with them rigidly and they have no right to tap our lines," he emphasized.

Mr. Gergens Tells Of Extra Trouble

Service Director Gergens told of the extra trouble that the city is subjected to in supplying New Boston. Every time a tap is taken out or a leak reported it means that some city employee has to be sent to the village, and for that reason he had fixed upon a nominal rate of $8 per tap. A few New Boston property owners, he said, had paid for taps under protest and a committee of the New Boston council had promised to appear at this meeting. He said he had heard of threats on the part of some to dig down and take up the city's 24-inch main running through New Boston. He also reported that it had been arranged to make 45 taps on the north side of Gallia pipe at $8 each.

A Lot Of Talk About "Nothing"

President George M. Osborn ended the discussion by declaring that there was nothing before the house.

Pass Resolution Over Mayor's Veto

The resolution whereby city council declares its intention not to interfere with the elimination of Kendall avenue grade crossing, after the overhead crossing is completed and which was recently vetoed by the mayor was revived by Mr. Shump. He moved to reconsider, Mr. Gulkler, seconding the motion. The chair ruled this to be in order and that the resolution take its regular course as though just introduced.

All members voted for the reconsideration save Mr. Westphal, he declining to vote. All voted for a suspension of the rules. Mr. Moeller moved the passage of the ordinance, it carrying with but one dissenting vote, that of Mr. Westphal.

Another Veto Overruled

Mr. Gulkler now moved to reconsider the acceptance of the plan of the Buck & Snyder addition at East Portsmouth, which was also vetoed by the mayor. Rules were suspended, and upon Mr. Schmitt's motion the ordinance passed unanimously.

Will Spend $3,000 On Widening Harvard St.

Chairman Gulkler, of the street committee, brought up the proposed opening of Harvard Place, through to Ninth street. He said the committee favored the plan No. 3 reported by the board of control of expending $3,000 for the widening of the street, provided the property owners were willing to stand an assessment of $2 per foot, otherwise proceed with the proposed paving of the street from Gallia street to its present terminus. Mr. Shump inquired if the city could assess the property owners. Solicitor McCall gave it as his opinion that it could not unless they agreed to it. The committee's report was received and filed.

Opinion On Repairs Of Railway Tracks

The solicitor submitted a written opinion dealing on the city's rights to compel the street railway to keep up its tracks and roadway on the main line through the city. He held that where such improvements took on a permanent nature, such as a concrete base under the tracks, council should pass resolutions directing the company to do the work, while in mere repair work of a temporary nature the service director had the power to order the work done. Mr. Gulkler asked if the city could ask the company to do more than what itself had done, such as ordering it to lay a concrete base when the city's portion of the streets was of gravel base. The solicitor expressed the belief that it could, for it was the street railway's wear and tear and vibration of tracks that put the streets in bad shape. He said on Ninth street the street railway's part was bad, while the city's portion was in good shape, but on Eleventh street the city's portion was equally as bad as that of the street railway.

The mayor now joined the discussion. He said the company last year had eliminated only the worst parts, then suddenly quit work, expecting to resume repairs this year, but no start had as yet been made in that direction, though he had just been advised by Supt. H. H. Higgins that the company was preparing to submit a proposal to the city to place its line through the city in good shape by bedding the tracks in solid concrete and probably wanted the city to bear part of the cost. He said it was certainly the company's duty to fix the streets.

Petition And Complaints Are Given A Hearing
A complaint by Mr. Wilson that the pool of water between Coburn Bros. mill and the Henry Hosman plant is becoming offensive, was referred to the service department.

A verbal petition by Mr. Westphal for a light at Eighteenth and Chillicothe streets was referred to the light committee.

A petition for a storm sewer on Poplar street, south from the corporation line to Gallia street, was referred to the street committee.

A petition presented by Attorney William A. Meyer, on behalf of Charles C. Mori, asking for a return curb at the private 36 ft street on his Gallia pipe property, Mr. Mori agreeing to bear the expense, or dedicate the street, if permitted to do so. Referred to service department.

Mr. Westphal reported that the petition for a storm sewer on the west side of Oakland avenue, between Seventeenth and Eighteenth streets, had evidently been misplaced, and as that action was badly in need of drainage he moved that the engineer bring in an estimate for the sewer. Motion carried.

The schedule amounting to $294.11, which covered the monthly salaries of the members and the cost of current legal advertising, was allowed.

Board Of Control Action On Maddock Alley

The city board of control report, withholding recommendation of the purchase of any property for widening Maddock alley between Jackson and Fourth streets, instead advising a 2 ft sidewalk on one side and an iron light, was received and filed. The board's recommendations that a citizen's committee be appointed to help consider the flood wall extension damage claims and the matter of moving properties west of Massin off the sidewalk to widen the approach to the new county bridge were also placed on file.

The solicitor was directed to bring in legislation appropriating $22.50 needed for the purchase of a dozen more valves by the water works' street department.

An order of H. C. Smith to compromise his $1000 damage claim on his Chillicothe street property and $300 claim on his Fifteenth street property, providing council will lay new sidewalks for him, was referred to the law and claims committee. Director Gergens estimated the cost of the two claims at $30. Mr. Gulkler thought the city should ask the N. & W. to pay the costs of the walls, as it was largely due to that railway that the claims for damages were made. Solicitor McCall thought it was not entirely due to the railway.

Mr. Henderson's Claim Allowed

Considerable merriment was indulged in when Director Gergens presented a $15 claim for L. H. Henderson, former street cleaning superintendent. The official referred to the claimant by his nickname, "Moogie" and this started the fun-making. He asked that amount for some under walks that he laid on Jackson street the first few days in January, 1914, under the direction of the former service department. Mr. Gergens explained that he had called in Henderson to ask a settlement of his water sprinkling bill, that Henderson settled for same, excepting $45, which he promised to pay if the city gave him a check for the under walk he had completed. Mr. Moeller inquired if the work had been authorized. He was informed that two days of it had by former service Director

Williams, while the third day's work had not been approved. Mr. Westphal asked if Mr. Henderson had over-improved his Chillicothe street property with walls and what reasons he had given for not doing so. He said he was not ready. Replied the mayor. Mr. Westphal felt though that it was in easy way of collecting money, and upon his motion the claim was allowed.

Estimates Received On Several Sewers
Estimates were received for the Dexter avenue storm and sanitary sewer of $1,000, the Rice alley sanitary sewer, a branch of the Dexter avenue sewer, $834.10, and the G. Heinrich sanitary sewer, south from Ninth street, east of Officers, $245, and the solicitor was instructed to provide legislation.

An ordinance presented by Chairman Wilson, of the finance committee, appropriating $180 for restoring the cannon in Tracy park, $35 for restoring the cannon in Greenlawn cemetery, and $50 for repairs to public buildings was passed under a suspension of the rules.

Will Sod Hermes Terrace

Chairman Gulkler, of the street committee, reported that some misunderstanding must have resulted over the matter of terracing the Hermes place in Kinner way. He said the committee had recommended that, after the city got the dirt it wanted, to sod the place, the engineer had merely sown seed and the wall is washing down again. The committee, he said, did not feel justified in leaving the place in that condition. Mr. Shump supported this stand, declaring that Mr. Hermes had gone out of his way to assist the city in its public improvements in that vicinity and that it was the city's moral duty to show its appreciation by doing something substantial for him. Upon his motion the engineer was ordered to sod the embankment and the solicitor to bring in legislation covering the amount.

Rails were suspended and an ordinance passed granting Charles Ball permission to remove a four-room cottage from 133 Second street to the rear of 801 Court street, he to restore the streets, if damaged, to their former condition.

Money Provided For More Improvements
Rails were suspended and ordinance passed appropriating $285.20 for the construction of the Adams bakery sanitary sewer west of Officers street, between Tenth and Eleventh streets, $375 for the Brown sanitary sewer in the alley between Tenth and Eleventh and Gay and Chillicothe streets, $1,000 for the Dexter avenue storm and sanitary sewer, $834.10 for the Rice alley extension sewer, and $245 for the Heinrich sanitary sewer.

Upon motion of Chairman Moeller, of the light committee, the arc light on Gay street, between Tenth and Eleventh streets, was ordered moved to the corner of Gay and Eleventh streets.

The second reading of the upper Gay street paving ordinance was held over until the next meeting, pending a report from the engineer, who was to have conferred with the N. & W. engineers relative to the railway's plans for paving or plank between its tracks.

The mayor brought up the annual matter of time for dumps, informing council it was the sense of the board of health not to antagonize council again on that score so that there will be no more contention about this in the future.

Mr. Westphal Wanted Money For Improvements
Mr. Westphal made a heroic but unsuccessful effort to loosen the

MISS ALICE A. NOEL RUN DOWN BY MOTORCYCLE; BADLY HURT

WOMAN DIES SUDDENLY FROM HEART DISEASE

Mrs. Lou Stinson, aged 40 years, colored, a rooming housekeeper of 1015 Eleventh street, was seized with an attack of heart failure about 6:30 Thursday morning and died before Dr. E. W. Hubert could reach her side. Coroner Dr.

Walter Dachtler was notified and found that death was due to heart disease. Mrs. Stinson had been a resident of Portsmouth but little over a year, coming to this city from the south. She has a son at Greensboro, N. C. who has been notified of her sudden death.

Alice A. Noel, a maiden lady, aged about sixty years, living on the Chillicothe pipe near the boulevard road, was run down and fatally injured by a motorcycle on Gallia street, near the post-office building, about 8:45 o'clock, this morning. She was knocked unconscious by the fall, and did not revive until some time later at her home, to which she was removed in Lyna's ambulance.

The name of the motorcycle rider has not been learned, although the police have the number of the machine and expect to locate him. He hurried away from the scene, however, before the police could ascertain his name.

Miss Noel had just come out of the Central National Bank building, where she had transacted some business, and had started diagonally across Gallia street in the direction of the First National Bank corner. As she stepped off the curb leading into the alley between the Central Bank and the post-office, the motorcycle approached her, coming west on Gallia street at a speed variously estimated by spectators at from eight to ten miles an hour.

The motorcyclist observed Miss Noel stepping out into the street, and veered his machine to go around her, according to eye-witnesses. She stepped forward in the same direction. The rider again changed the course of his machine to go back of her, and she then took a step backward, stepping right into the path of the machine, spectators say.

She was struck a glancing blow by the front wheel and hurled to the ground, alighting heavily upon her head and shoulders. Her nose was badly cut, while she sustained painful bruises about the lips and chin. She suffered most from the shock, however, and as far as could be determined, was not internally injured.

Dr. G. W. Martin was hurriedly summoned to the scene, and he removed her to his office on Sixth street in his automobile, where first aid was rendered. She was later removed to her home in Lyna's ambulance, where she revived. Attorney Mark Crawford, who accompanied her to her home in the ambulance, stated upon his return that the attending physician did not regard her injuries as fatal, though very painful.

Ladies Aid Will Meet

The Ladies Aid Society of the Fourth Street M. E. church will meet Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Martin on Waller street. All members are requested to be present.

Candidates Are Working

The Irononian says: The petition of T. J. Kennedy, Will Wymer and A. J. Hannan for mayor, Fred Horsfield for city treasurer and Percy Dean for city auditor, are being circulated and liberally signed.

Mr. Kennedy formerly resided here.

MASONS WILL REBUILD

The Irononian says: "That the Masonic order will rebuild the Masonic Temple there is very little question, yet it has not been authoritatively settled. The lodge will meet Friday evening in the Castle hall at Myrtle Lodge. Some action will, more than likely be taken at this meeting."

It is the opinion of a great number of the members of the order that a modern up-to-date structure will be erected upon the site now owned by them. The new building that is contemplated by those who have talked about the matter to the Irononian will be modern in every particular, and will not contain a theatre or opera house. This feature of the old building will be eliminated in the new one. Very likely the building will be a four story one, the ground floor being devoted to store rooms and business houses, the second floor to offices, and the third and fourth floors to lodge and club rooms.

Leg Crushed Off

Milton Stewart, aged 10, of Ironton, fell beneath the wheels of a freight train Wednesday and his left leg was ground off. It is understood the boy tried to board a moving train.

Complaints Made

City Sanitary Inspector Arthur Hinton has been directed to investigate complaints about vaults at the William Ray property, No. 421 Front street, the Shakespeare property No. 414-416 Third St., and the property occupied by Squire John W. Byron at Sixth and Court streets.

city purse strings, with a view to repairing Findlay street, which he said was in a horrible condition. He was told that the regular funds had become exhausted and that the finance committee had suspended operations. Endangered he asked for enlightenment as to how to proceed to get some money. He was informed that the street extension fund still held a balance of $2,500, and his hopes revived. He promptly planned to secure at least a portion of this $2,500, declaring that the Third ward was causing him much worry. His colleagues, however, refused to offer any encouragement.

Mr. Schmitt, too, wanted some repairs made at the intersecting of Second and Madison streets, but the brave efforts ended when Mr. Shump moved adjournment.

To The Workhouse

Chief W. T. McCarty expects to take John Harvey and Charles Murphy to the Cincinnati workhouse Friday morning. Harvey was convicted of trying to aid prisoners to escape from the police station while Murphy was found guilty of "boot-legging."

500 From Ironton

The Homer Smith took out 500 excursionists from Ironton Wednesday night.

Want Free Rides

The mayor has asked the street railway company to provide free transportation over its lines for the members of the city engineering department. The engineers claim to be so burdened with public work at the present time that they were asking for an increase in their salaries and the mayor therefore is trying to arrange the free service for them. The company has taken the matter under advisement.
